Hello Fellow Owls,

I am Karen Gough, Assistant Vice President of the Florida Atlantic University Career Center and Leadership Education and Development programs.

Although your experiences as a student during this semester are not what anyone would have expected, I wanted to personally reach out and let you know that the entire FAU Career Center team is readily available and eager to support you as you look to build toward a successful future.

The FAU Career Center offers a wide variety of dynamic and interactive virtual services, programs, and resources that will enable you to continue to plan your career and enhance your career readiness skills. If you are looking to map majors to careers, we can help. Do you need to refine your resume, build/enhance your LinkedIn and Handshake profile, or improve your interviewing skills? We can help. Are you looking for an internship, part-time position, or a fulltime role? The FAU Career Center can help with these and even more services.

To you, our graduating seniors, please know that the FAU Career Center team is aware of how very difficult this situation must be, and we are all committed to help support you on your journey.

Whether you have questions related to your job search or you need help applying to graduate or professional school, our resources are ready to help you accomplish your goals and assist you in building toward a successful future.

Together, we will finish strong!

GO OWLS!
