Crisis and Emergency Policy

Policy:

- a. CAPS provides emergency walk-in crisis stabilization for students, faculty, staff, and visitors.
- b. If those in need of emergency are eligible for continued services, providers will consider arranging further services at CAPS.
- c. Additionally, we provide a range of consultation and training services for FAU faculty and staff including emergency walk-in or phone consultation related to students exhibiting troubling, disturbing, or disruptive behaviors.
- d. CAPS provides an after-hours crisis line to the campus community. This line is available whenever CAPS is closed. The number for the after-hours line is 561-297-3540.
