After extensive deliberation, the Council recommended that I Choose an item. the findings of academic dishonesty, and I have accepted that recommendation.

You may appeal this finding of academic dishonesty to the University Provost (or designee) by following the procedures described in Regulation 4.001, which is available at Regulation 4.001 \(Code of Academic Integrity\). Such appeal must be submitted in writing to Click or tap here to enter text. and must include relevant documentation in support of the appeal within five (5) business days of receipt of this summary.

A finding that the Code of Academic Integrity has been violated results in the following notation being included on your academic transcript and your internal student record:

"Violation of Code of Academic Integrity."

In the case of a first offense, you may elect to complete an Academic Integrity Seminar administered by the Division of Student Affairs, which must be completed by the end of the semester following the semester in which the dishonesty occurred.

- For information about the Academic Integrity Seminar, email studentconduct@fau.edu
- Or complete this online form at:
https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?FloridaAtlanticUniv&layout_id=18

Upon successful completion of the seminar, the notation regarding violation of the Code of Academic Integrity will be expunged from the student's official transcript, but will remain in the student's internal University record. Students may not apply to the University's forgiveness policy, drop, or withdraw from courses in which a violation of the Code of Academic Integrity occurred.

In the case of a repeat offense, even if the notation of violation of the Code of Academic Integrity from the first offense had been expunged from the official transcript after successful completion of the Academic Integrity Seminar, Regulation 4.001 requires expulsion from the University.

More information on penalties and the Academic Integrity Seminar is available at Regulation 4.001 \(Code of Academic Integrity\).
