

Did you know?

Office for Academic and Student Services

In 2025, your COE Advisors...

- Held approximately 1,400 undergraduate advising appointments (in-person, virtual and walk-in)
- Led the COE's admissions recruitment initiatives through:
 - Explore Florida Atlantic with over 70 students and guests - Spring 2025
 - Discover Florida Atlantic with over 40 students and guests - Summer 2025
 - Choose Florida Atlantic with over 110 students and guests - Fall 2025
- Represented the COE throughout the year in student support initiatives including tabling sessions, rising sophomore gatherings, student honors and awards functions
- Led 19 FTIC and Transfer Onboarding sessions for over 100 students
- Attended a variety of state college activities, including college recruitment days and advisor update meetings
- Connected with 112 new transfer students through their admission to FAU
- Connected with 93 new sophomores through their handoff from University Advising Services

Did you know?

Undergraduate Advising Process

Admission

(COE transfer student or FTIC with 45 credits)

OASS makes contact through Onboarding
and direct outreach

OASS advises student through formal admission to program

Student is connected to faculty advisor
for graduation plan

Faculty advisor and OASS team continue collaboration to support student success

As student prepares for final term,
OASS completes thorough graduation review

Graduation!

...Thank you for your teamwork!