Students expected to graduate from Presidential Scholars Program.

EDUCATION CONNECTION

Grants

Important projects provide the data and information needed to write manuscripts, regarding the role of assessment literacy and assessment knowledge by division math students and continue to write and present on our findings Methodology, on their active IRB research in local schools to address math DeHass, Ph.D., Professor, Teaching and Learning, and Maria Vasquez, Bakan, Ph.D. He continues to work with his colleagues, Alyssa Gonzalez and imagination in the teaching of geometry, and he is working on Representative, providing the opportunity to meet with colleagues regarding domestic and international, and their real project to understand the pandemic Counseling, and her team have implemented and designed a research programs for children in grades K now offering an specialization in Higher Dawn Dubruiel ELRM Marisa Schnirman Instruction program CCEI Vol. 1, Issue 4

FAU High School Student Named Regeneron

Jan. 26, 2021 shows FAU Stephen Silverman, Ed.D., Dean, COE, and Rangasamy Ramasamy, benefits include the opportunity to present their research at the AACTE doctoral students from historically underrepresented backgrounds. Other three Follow us on social media!

www.fau.edu/education/ U.S. News & World Report