Abstract

Speech and language interventions are part of the many common services for students with disabilities in schools today. General and special educators alike will likely have students with speech and language impairments in their classrooms and thus will have the opportunity and responsibility to collaborate with speech language pathologists (SLPs). In this session, participants will learn about approaches to implementing speech and language services within the inclusive classroom setting to include push-in, co-teaching, and pull out approaches to service delivery.

THIS EVENT IS OPEN TO ALL EDUCATION MAJORS.

This event is offered in fulfillment of a series of enrichment activities for the Department's Honoring Outstanding Owl Teachers (HOOT), the honors-in-the-major program within the Exceptional Student Education major in the College of Education. For additional information about the HOOT program, contact the honor's program Sharon Darling, Ph.D. sdarlin4@fau.edu, Charles Dukes, Ph.D. cdukes@fau.edu or Lisa Finnegan, Ph.D. lfinnegan@fau.edu.

If you need a reasonable accommodation to fully participate in this event, contact Sharon Darling at sdarlin4@fau.edu, 561.297.0807 or TTY Relay Station 1.800.955.8770. Please make your needs known as soon as possible, preferably at least four business days prior to the event, to allow sufficient time for effective accommodations.

*Participants arriving late (i.e., 16 minutes or more after the start time) will not be able to enter the meeting, as it will be closed, resulting in them not being able to obtain credit for attending the event. Please plan accordingly.
