Abstract

This multi-presenter session will provide overview of three research studies conducted by DESE Doctoral candidates. The foci of these studies are (a) teaching safety skills to adults with developmental disabilities, (b) using Zumba to impact the health and fitness of adults with intellectual disabilities, and (c) using literacy based behavioral interventions with young children. In addition to the study overviews, presenters will host a brief Q & A session following.

Audience participation is strongly encouraged.

This event is open to all education majors.

This event is offered in fulfillment of a series of enrichment activities for the Department's Honoring Outstanding Owl Teachers (HOOT), the honors-in-the-major program within the Department of Exceptional Student Education. For additional information about the HOOT program, contact the honor's program coordinators, Drs. Darling (sdarlin4@fau.edu), Dukes (cdukes@fau.edu) or Finnegan (LFinnegan@fau.edu).

If you need a reasonable accommodation to fully participate in this event, contact Dr. Darling at sdarlin4@fau.edu, 561.297.0807 or TTY Relay Station 1.800.955.8770. Please make your needs known as soon as possible, preferably at least four business days prior to the event, to allow sufficient time for effective accommodations.

Participants arriving late (i.e., 16 minutes or more after the start time) for this event will not obtain credit for attending the event.
Please plan travel and parking time accordingly.*
