

This event is brought to you by Student Council for Exceptional Children (SCEC) and is co-sponsored Florida Atlantic University's Department of Exceptional Student Education (DESE), Kappa Delta Pi (KDP), and COE Student Advisory

Advocacy for Action to Support Education

Friday, September 15

9:30-1:30 pm

Grand Palm, Student Union, FAU, Boca

Advocacy is a cornerstone of our democracy. The time is now to learn about the impact of advocacy and how to advocate. This half-day conference will feature speakers, question and answer session, followed by sessions intended to build advocacy skills. Want to make your voice heard as a citizen and as a current or future member of the education field? Come to this conference to learn about the issues and to boost your advocacy skills!

CONFIRMED SPEAKERS

- * Dr. Corey King, VP for Student Affairs, FAU
- * Daniel Gohl, Chief Academic Officer, Broward County Public Schools
- * Shevrin Jones, Florida House Representative District 101, Democratic Ranking Member on Leadership for Education Committee
- * Kevin McCormick, Director, Exceptional Student Education, Palm Beach Public Schools
- * Joseph Sophie, Legislative Aide to Melissa McKinlay, Palm Beach County, District 6
- * Bill Tomlinson, Executive Director, Exceptional Student Education, St. Lucie Public Schools

Registration is free and open to all, however RSVP deadline is September 8. Register here:

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/advocacy-for-education-conference-tickets-33294520808>

For additional information about this event or if you need a reasonable accommodation to fully participate in this event, please contact Dr. Miller at millerk@fau.edu. To allow sufficient time for effective accommodations, please make your needs known as soon as possible, preferably at least five business days prior to the event.