

Jimmy's Asking For Help Story

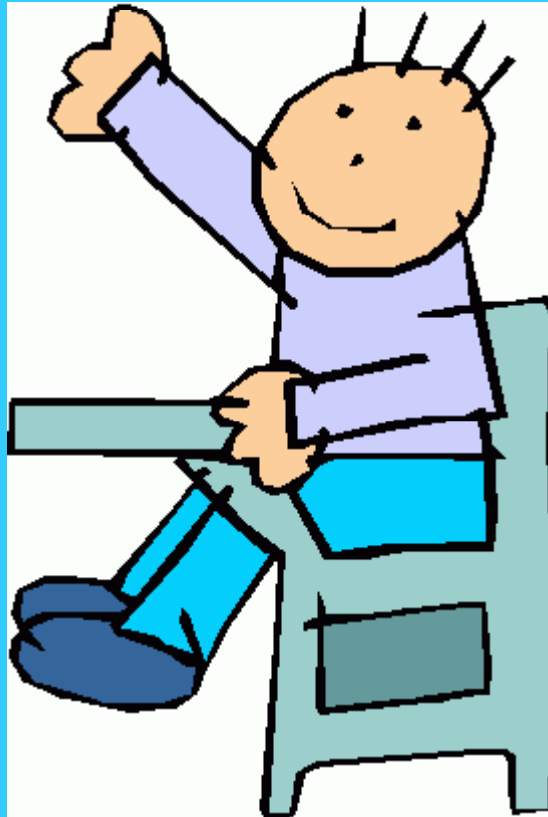

Jimmy is in 5th grade.

He is in Ms. Jacob's fifth grade class. This is a picture of Jimmy's class.

Sometimes Jimmy calls out when he needs help. This interrupts his teacher and disrupts the class. Jimmy could raise his hand instead of calling out during class.

Ms. Jacob taped a picture of a student raising his hand to Jimmy's desk. This will help to remind him to raise his hand when he needs to ask for help.

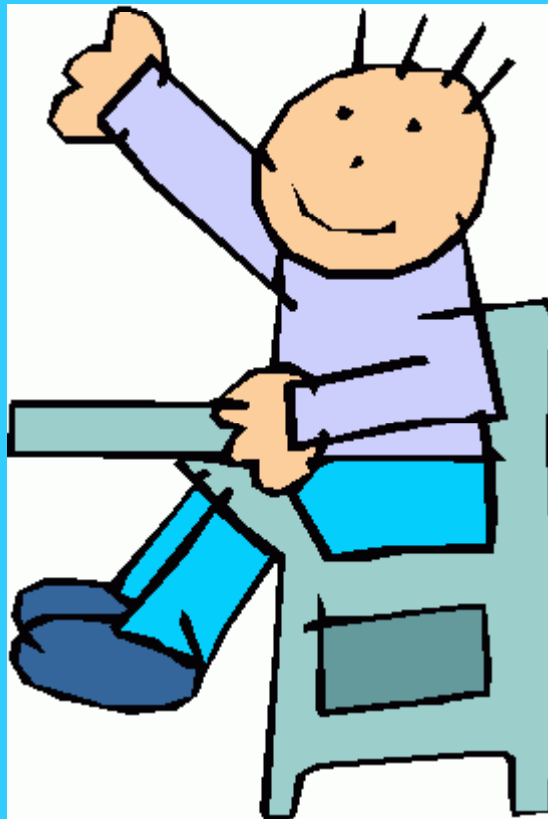

Picture on Jimmy's desk.

Jimmy's Desk

Ms. Jacob is very happy when Jimmy remembers to raise his hand to ask for help.

Remember Jimmy, the next time you need help in class, Raise your hand!

Good Job Jimmy!

Jackie's Handing in Homework Story

This is Jackie's third grade classroom.

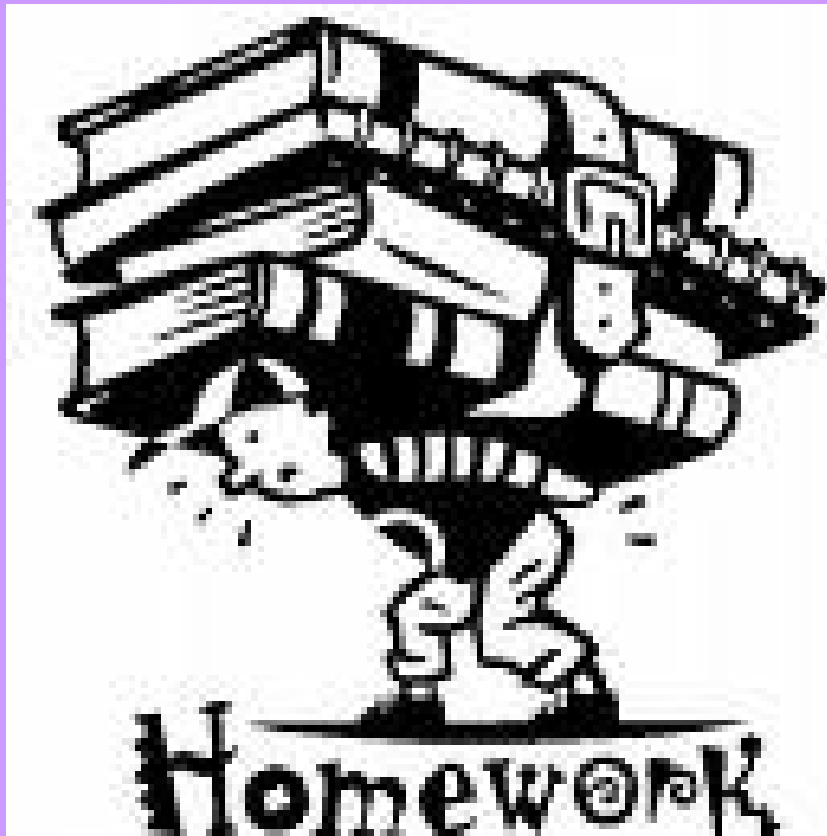

Jackie works very hard in third grade.

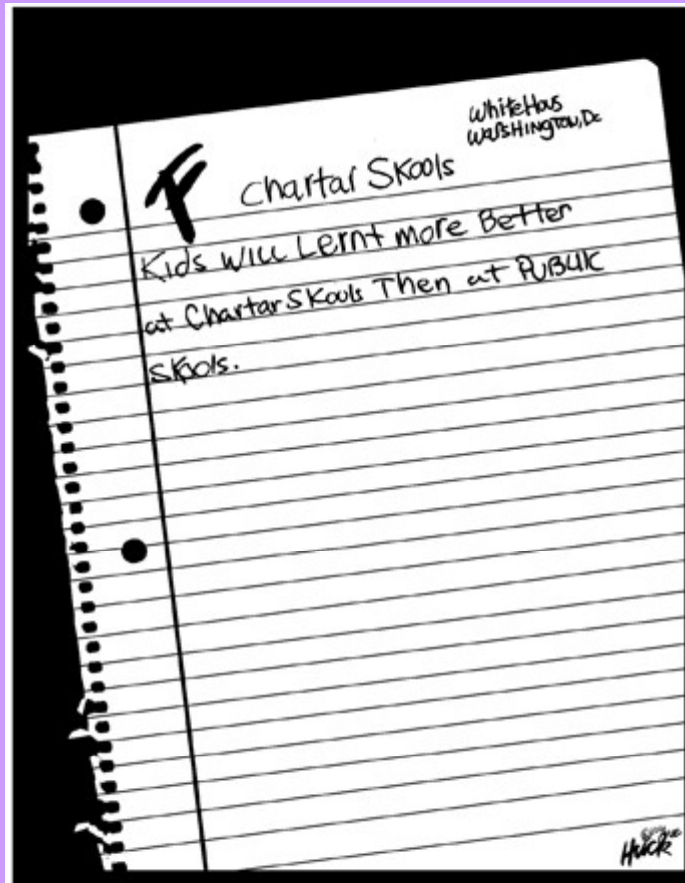

Jackie

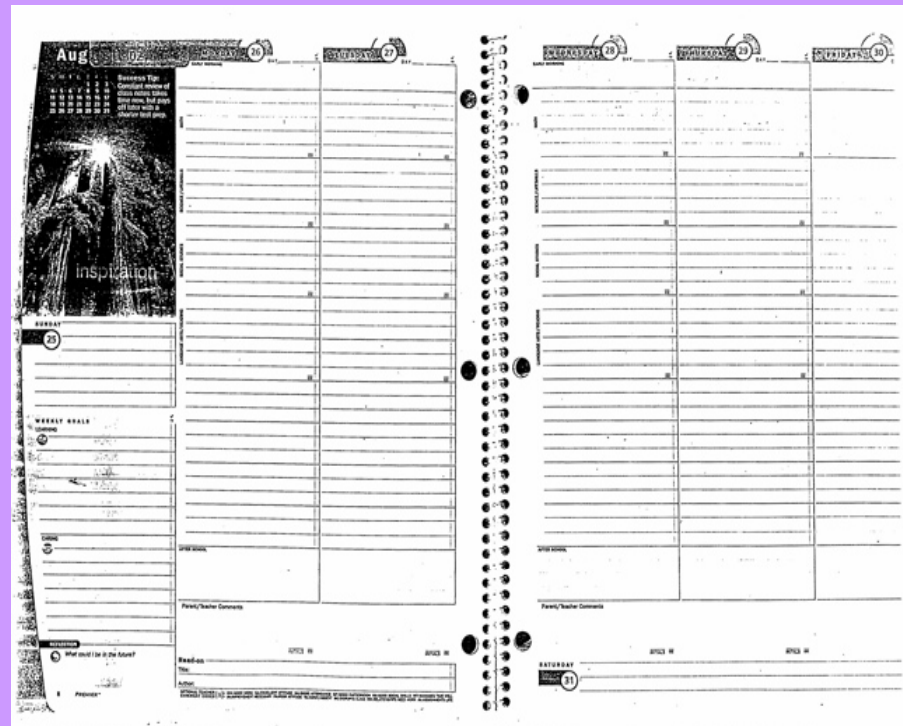

But even though Jackie works hard, she often forgets to turn in her homework.

When Jackie doesn't do her homework, she doesn't earn very good grades.

Jackie needs to remember to do her homework every night.

When Jackie gets to school in the morning, she needs to remember to turn her homework in to her teacher.

The homework needs to go in the blue basket on the teacher's desk.

Everyone will be happier when Jackie does her homework and turns it in to the teacher.
