III. New FAU Graduate Government Document

Implications for COE- Dissertation and Thesis Guidelines- Sub-Committee Report- Valerie Bryan reviewed the approved Graduate College Governance Document. Key points from her notes include Associate Graduate Faculty minimum requirements, which are to hold the rank of Adjunct Faculty or above, hold the terminal degree suitable, and be actively involved in scholarly or creative activity or graduate teaching. This means a policy needs to be redefined for the COE in order to include Adjuncts in the Graduate Faculty Review process. Currently Dean Bristor has already sent in a list of faculty that are considered graduate faculty at this time to the Graduate College. Deborah Floyd shared a draft of a policy to be discussed by this committee. A written process need to be drafted by the GPC. After discussion in a GPC meeting, the draft policy can move to the COE Faculty Assembly for input. Once the Faculty Assembly approves the policy then it goes to the University Graduate Council for approval. A discussion about the criteria ensued. The COE already has a policy for graduate faculty status. The draft by Deborah Floyd was discussed concerning the policy in place and how this policy can fit into the categories outlined by the approved Graduate College Governance Document.

A sub-committee for the process of appointment and renewal of graduate faculty (all levels) was suggested by Deborah Floyd.

Ali Danesh, Greg Briggman, Susannah Brown, Carlos Diaz, Deborah Floyd, and Valerie Bryan agreed to meet as a sub-committee to address this policy. Deborah Floyd’s draft will be emailed to these members and an email discussion will occur.

Graduate Thesis and Dissertation Guidelines - Set of revisions are being forwarded to all GPC members. Refer to Valerie Bryan’s highlighted areas of the document to be sent via email to all GPC members. Comments to be sent to Valerie Bryan and Mary Lou Duffy and will be discussed at the future meeting.

IV. Discussion of the Ph.D. Completion Project – to be discussed in a future meeting.

V. Other- A list-serve is part of the email from Deborah Floyd. At anytime that documents need to be sent to the whole GPC, the chair of that sub-committee can email to the whole as needed. It doesn’t have to go through Deborah Floyd each time unless preferred.

VI. Adjourn at 2:56pm
