IV. Old business
A) New faculty search committee and the role of department chairs on search committees. Brought by Dean Valerie Bristor.
1) Search committee purpose: gather information on candidates, discuss this data, and make recommendations to the department chair.
2) Case law: if the purpose of a meeting is to rank and recommend then it needs to be open to the public, search committee chair needs only to meet one-on-one with the department chair to follow this law, department chair may be the search committee chair. If serving as committee chair, department chair may recluse themselves for discussion by committee.

3) Search committee composition: if the composition of your department’s search committee changes due to this clarification please notify the EOC.

4) Faculty search process checklist: in revision, committees to follow current checklist for now.

V. New business

A) COE Strategic Planning. Coordinated by Dr. John Pisapia.

1) Proposal of new approach to strategic planning called Strategic Thinking: Steering Committee will be established to guide process. After an approval process of the statement of intent a quality committee will be formed as a standing committee that meets every six months to advise on implementation of the statement of intent.

2) This is an inside-out process: Dr. Pisapia will provide a succinct one-page summary of this strategic thinking process in about one month. In teaching, researching, and servicing we are looking for a focus that at some point will move our thinking up a level guiding an adjustment. This process is about our own belief system as a college that will allow us to become more self-managed with a flexible set of guidelines that could never be done bureaucratically.

3) Expect an email list: for the College of Education Strategic Thinking Initiative to notify faculty of strategic thinking activities so everyone can fully participate in the process.

4) Expect a website: so all information, process and documents are transparent.

B) Changes to Florida Teacher Exams (FTCE). Brought by Joe Waters.

1) Changes and impacts: change in the fee structure, new requirements for all passing scores on subtests, and a switch to all computer-based testing. Students should be encouraged to take the GK (English and Math) during their sophomore year. Advisors would help students to strategize the appropriate time to take the remaining subject area tests.

C) Graduate Faculty Status. Brought by Dr. Deborah Floyd.

1) Approval needed: of college criteria for COE graduate faculty status for compliance issues.

2) Recommendations: eliminate the waiting period for teaching at FAU for one year to be considered for graduate faculty status, a five rather than six year window for a faculty member to renew graduate faculty status, note that everybody who is currently granted graduate faculty status, as of Dec 31 2009, is approved through December 31, 2014.

3) Approval of COE graduate faculty status revisions: A motion to amend the document by allowing the publication of a book to be given the value of two evidences instead of one was made by Dr. Mike Brady; the motion was seconded by Dr. Deborah Foley. The amendment did not pass by majority vote.

D) Syllabus Statement regarding LIVE TEXT:
Due to time constraints this will be discussed at the April 16, 2010 FA meeting.

VI. Departmental Reports:
FASC proposed that departmental committee reports of pressing issues and agenda items be sent to FA president ahead of meetings in an effort to avoid department reports taking up limited time during FA meetings. In addition, there was a suggestion that instituting reports from departments and committees to be posted prior to FASC meetings and included in minutes.

VII. Announcements:
The week of March 15th an announcement will go out seeking nominations for FA elections (vice president, secretary, archivist, and senators). Responsibilities for positions are archived on the FA web site. At the April 16th FA we will announce election results. We have about a month to get an announcement out during Spring break, set up electronic voting, and allow a week for voting. Faculty members are urged to start thinking about nominees for those positions.

VIII. Open Discussion:
Dr. Deborah Floyd announced that the University Graduate Council was informed that FAU/UM relations for a medical school were severed. The UGC wants transparency in respect to this process. Issues can be brought for representation to Dr. Floyd.
