

College of Education Student Achievement Council Presents:

23rd ANNUAL RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM

Reclaiming the Right to Learn: Student Voice and Joy in Education

The 23rd Annual Research Symposium, organized by COE SAC, invites student proposals showcasing graduate and undergraduate class projects, along with independent research. The symposium exemplifies SAC's commitment to offering a space for students to actively participate in meaningful research, promoting interdisciplinary collaboration and scholarly expertise."

We anticipate that this theme encompasses a wide range of potential topics:

- Student-Centric Pedagogies
- Educational Technology for Empowerment
- Cultivating Inclusive Learning Spaces
- Assessment for Learning, Not Just Evaluation
- Student Advocacy and Leadership in Education

NOT LIMITED TO ABOVE TOPICS

INTERESTED IN PRESENTING?

Please submit presentation proposals by:
February 9, 2024 using the link below or QR code to the right.

SUBMIT RESEARCH PROPOSAL HERE!

Thursday,
April 4, 2024
4pm- 7pm

Register for Zoom Link

Use the link above or QR code to register to receive Zoom link and access to presentation abstracts.

Join the College of Education family as they share their research projects via a live, virtual poster session and student oral presentations!