REQUESTING AID FOR THE _____ SEMESTER

A student may appeal the cancellation of their financial aid eligibility resulting from failure to meet the GPA and/or Pace component of the Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) criteria by submitting this form along with any additional documentation of mitigating circumstances that have affected academic progress. FAU’s SAP Policy can be found on the Office of Student Financial Aid website: www.fau.edu/finaid/resources/policies.php#progress

Students who are appealing based on anticipated changes to their transcript (due to academic petition action, grade changes, or new institutional/transfer work) should not submit their appeal until the transcript contains all the anticipated changes.

All SAP appeals must be submitted with the following:

- Signed statement from student explaining why you failed to make satisfactory academic progress and what has changed in your situation that will allow you to make satisfactory progress in the future. You may use the area on page 2 of this form or attach a typed statement.
- Any documentation that supports the appeal. Suggested documentation is detailed below.

DESCRIPTION OF POTENTIAL CIRCUMSTANCES FOR APPEAL AND SUGGESTED DOCUMENTATION:

Personal injury, illness, or physical disability of student

Suggested Documentation:

1. Student statement of circumstances (that a medical condition impaired performance) and why future academic performance will not be impaired by condition(s).
2. Statement on letterhead from health care provider acknowledging medical condition(s) existed that may have impacted your academic performance and that you have obtained treatment for the medical condition(s). The statement should include the following:
 - Confirmation of the date span for which medical conditions existed.
 - Confirmation that the condition may have impaired academic performance.
 - Confirmation that you have obtained treatment to address issue(s) and improve academic performance.

FAU Z# _____

Death/illness of family member

Suggested Documentation:

1. Student statement explaining circumstances impairing performance and why future academic performance will not be impaired by circumstances.
2. If family member deceased: Government Issued Death Certificate (funeral notice/obituary may be acceptable with accompanying documentation which substantiates relationship between the deceased and the student). If family member is ill: Documentation of family member's illness.

Lack of overall progress as the result of poor performance in first FAU term

Suggested Documentation:

1. Submit statement detailing circumstances impairing performance during first semester at FAU and why future academic performance will not be impaired by circumstances.
2. Include documentation of participation in tutoring or other types of assistance programs if applicable.

Other Special Circumstances

If your academic progress has been affected by special or extenuating circumstances not included on this list, you may submit this appeal with your statement as well as any supporting documentation.

STUDENT STATEMENT OF CIRCUMSTANCES
