This form should be used by the person reported as "parent's spouse or partner" on the student's FAFSA. Your 2023 Federal Tax Information was successfully transferred to the student's 2025-2026 FAFSA. However, you manually entered tax information on the FAFSA which is different from what the IRS transferred. This is generally only permitted due to recent changes in marital status. You must indicate the reason why you manually entered tax information which was different from what the IRS reported. You must also submit a copy of your 2023 tax return transcript (retrieve at IRS.gov) or a signed copy of your 2023 income tax return and applicable schedules. The student will not be eligible for a financial aid disbursement until the required tax documents and this form are submitted and reviewed.

Student Name and Z Number: _____

Your Name: _____

Your relation to student: _____

Select which of the following applies:

☐ I made a mistake on the FAFSA by modifying my tax information and I authorize FAU to correct my income information to reflect the information reported by the IRS for 2023.

☐ I modified my tax return information on the FAFSA due to a change in my marital status since my 2023 tax return was filed. I will explain below.

You may be required to provide additional information or documentation.

The person signing below certifies that all of the information reported is complete and correct. WARNING: If you purposely give false or misleading information, you may be fined, sent to prison, or both. Typed signatures will not be accepted. Signatures must be signed by hand ("wet").
