You indicated on your FAFSA that your parents are unwilling to provide their information, but that you don't have an unusual circumstance that prevents you from contacting your parents or obtaining their information. If you correctly answered this question and proceed with submitting this form, the Office of Student Financial Aid will determine your eligibility for a Direct Unsubsidized Loan only. If you are approved for this option, you will not qualify to receive other types of federal student loans (including Direct Subsidized Loans), federal grants, or Federal Work-Study programs.

Please review the following options:

1. You did not answer this question correctly and you are able to add parental information to your FAFSA to be considered for all types of aid.
 - ACTION NEEDED: Do not submit this form. Log onto StudentAid.gov, select the applicable FAFSA from the Dashboard, select 'Make a Correction' and add your parent(s) to the application. Click here for detailed instructions.
2. You have unusual circumstances that prevent you from contacting your parents, or contacting your parents would pose a risk to you. Unusual circumstances include: Left home due to an abusive or threatening environment; abandoned by or estranged from parents; have refugee or asylee status and separated from parents, or parents are displaced in a foreign country; Victim of human trafficking; Parents are incarcerated. Unusual circumstances do not include: Student demonstrates total self-sufficiency; parents refuse to contribute to student's education; student claims self on taxes.
 - ACTION NEEDED: Do not submit this form. Contact your financial aid counselor regarding the possibility of a dependency override.
3. You answered the question correctly and would like to be reviewed for an unsubsidized loan only.
 - ACTION NEEDED: Check the following box and sign and submit this form. Attach a signed statement from your parents indicating that they refuse to complete the FAFSA OR that they do not and will not provide any financial support to the student (include the date support ended). (Note: If your parents refuse to sign and date a statement to this effect, you must attach documentation which confirms your circumstances from a third party such as a teacher, counselor, cleric, or court.)

- ☐ My parents are unwilling to provide their information, but I don't have an unusual circumstance that prevents me from contacting my parents or obtaining their information. I would like the Office of Student Financial Aid to determine my eligibility for a Direct Unsubsidized Loan only for the _____ (indicate applicable award year) award year.
