

Catalog copy revised (strikethrough):

Admission Requirements (for all concentrations)

1. A statement of intent that outlines the applicant's goals and objectives and how this interdisciplinary program can help the applicant achieve these.
  - ~~2. Competitive scores on the verbal, quantitative and analytical writing portions of the Graduate Record Examination (GRE). GRE must have been taken within the past five years.~~
  - ~~3.~~ 2. A B.A., B.F.A., B.S., M.A., M.S., M.F.A., B.Arch, M.Arch, M.Des or M.M. degree. Students with other undergraduate or graduate degrees, such as M.B.A. or J.D., may also be considered. An applicant must submit a paper, approximately 20 pages in length and with scholarly documentation, that will demonstrate the applicant's analytical and explanatory skills and command of the discipline in the area of the master's degree.
  4. 3. Three descriptive letters of recommendation, including at least two from professors whose course(s) the student has taken. These letters should be current and should attest to the applicant's intellectual qualifications for the Ph.D. in Comparative Studies.
  - ~~5.~~ 4. Approval of Ph.D. executive committee.
5. It is recommended, but not required, that students submit competitive verbal, quantitative and analytic Graduate Record Examination (GRE) scores from within the past five years.