Course Description/Introduction

Course provides students with a macro view of American policing, including historical interactions with vulnerable and minority populations. The course provides a forum to discuss the chronological evolution of policing, and to critique strategic and philosophical vestiges. Key events and turning points in American policing are also discussed, including the development of the FBI, relevant case law, oversight commissions, and more.

Time Commitment per Credit Hour

This course has three credit hours. For traditionally delivered courses, not less than one hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction each week for approximately fifteen weeks per Fall or Spring semester, and a minimum of two hours of out-of-class student work for each credit hour. Equivalent time and effort is required for Summer Semesters, which may be offered over a shortened time frame. Fully Online courses, hybrid, shortened, intensive format courses, and other non-traditional modes of delivery will demonstrate equivalent time and effort.

Course Objectives

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Recognize and describe the foundational principles of American policing,
2. Develop foundational knowledge of key events in law enforcement history,
3. Critically analyze historical police interactions with diverse populations,
4. Articulate findings from relevant police oversight commissions,
5. Identify different eras and strategies of American policing, and
6. Demonstrate an understanding of the origins of law enforcement.

Course Delivery Mode

This is a hybrid course accessible through FAU's learning management system – Canvas – and Zoom. You must log into Canvas with your FAU ID and Password to access the materials and assignments in this course. If you do not know your FAU ID or Password click the following link for help. Link to Office of Information Technology Help.

Required Textbook(s)

- (1) Hadden, S. (2001). Slave patrols. Harvard University Press.

Technical Support

In the online environment, technical issues are always possible (e.g., lost connection, hardware or software failure). Many of these can be resolved relatively quickly, but if you wait until the last minute before due dates, the chances of these glitches affecting your success are greatly increased. Please plan appropriately. If a problem occurs, it is essential you take immediate action to document the issue so your instructor can verify and take appropriate action to resolve the problem. When a problem occurs, click the “Help” link. You will be able to report a problem and search Canvas guides.

Additional Technical Support

1. Contact the eLearning Success Advisor for assistance: 561-297-3590
2. If you can, make a Print Screen of the monitor when the problem occurs. Save the Print Screen as a .jpg file. If you are unfamiliar with creating a Print Screen file, visit Link to Print Screen Instructions.
3. Complete a Help Desk ticket Link to Help Desk. Make sure you complete the form entirely and give a full description of your problem so the Help Desk staff will have the pertinent information in order to assist you properly. This includes:
  - a. Select “Canvas (Student)” for the Ticket Type.
  - b. Input the Course ID.
  - c. In the Summary/Additional Details section, include your operating system, Internet browser, and Internet service provider (ISP).
  - d. Attach the Print Screen file, if available.
4. If you do not hear back from the Help Desk within a timely manner (48 hours), it is your responsibility to follow up with the appropriate person until a resolution is obtained.

5. Once you have submitted a Help Desk Ticket, inform your instructor. Include all pertinent information of the incident (3b-d above). Keep your instructor informed of the status.

Late Assignments Policy

Students will not be penalized for absences due to participation in university approved activities, including: athletic or scholastics teams, musical and theatrical performances, and debate activities. I will allow students to make up missed work without any reduction in the student's final course grade, provided you give me advance notice and documentation. Reasonable accommodation will also be made for students participating in a religious observance.

Make-up Policy for Tests/Assignments

This syllabus is a contract between the student, professor, and university. Please refer to the "Late Assignments Policy" for information on make-up work.

Incomplete Grade Policy

The University policy states that a student who is passing a course, but has not completed all work due to exceptional circumstances, may, with consent of the instructor, temporarily receive a grade of incomplete ("I"). The assignment of the "I" grade is at the discretion of the instructor, but is allowed only if the student is passing the course.

Code of Academic Integrity Policy Statement

Students at Florida Atlantic University are expected to maintain the highest ethical standards. Academic dishonesty is considered a serious breach of these ethical standards, because it interferes with the University mission to provide a high quality education in which no student enjoys an unfair advantage over any other. Academic dishonesty is also destructive of the university community, which is grounded in a system of mutual trust and places high value on personal integrity and individual responsibility. Harsh penalties are associated with academic dishonesty. For more information, see University Regulation 4.001.

Plagiarism is unacceptable in the University community. Academic work that is submitted by students is assumed to be the result of their own thought, research, or self-expression. When students borrow ideas, wording, or organization from another source, they are expected to acknowledge that fact in an appropriate manner. Plagiarism is the deliberate use and appropriation of another's work without identifying the source and trying to pass off such work as one's own. Any student who fails to give full credit for ideas or materials taken from another has plagiarized. This includes all discussion posts and other written and oral presentation assignments. If in doubt, cite your source!

Online Attendance Policy

If the course is delivered online, you are expected to access the course at least three times per week to ensure you do not miss pertinent postings, messages, or announcements. It is imperative that you meet course deadlines and stay active in discussions, group projects, etc. If you are experiencing major illness, absences due to University duties, or other large-scale issues, contact the instructor immediately to formulate a resolution.

Netiquette and Classroom Etiquette Policy

Due to the casual communication common in the online environment, students are sometimes tempted to relax their grammar, spelling, and/or professionalism. Please remember that you are adult students and professionals—your communication should be appropriate.

For more in-depth information, please see the FAU statement on Netiquette.

Classroom Etiquette/Disruptive Behavior Policy Statement

Disruptive behavior is defined in the FAU Student Code of Conduct as “... activities which interfere with the educational mission within classroom.” Students who behave in the face-to-face and/or virtual classroom such that the educational experiences of other students and/or the instructor's course objectives are disrupted are subject to disciplinary action. Such behavior impedes students' ability to learn or an instructor's ability to teach. Disruptive behavior may include, but is not limited to: non-approved use of electronic devices (including cellular telephones); cursing or shouting at others in such a way as to be disruptive; or, other violations of an instructor's expectations for classroom conduct.

For more information, please see the FAU Office of Student Conduct: Link to Student Conduct Policy

Communication Policy

Expectations for Students

- Procedures for a grade appeal may be found in Chapter 4 of the University Regulations.

Religious Accommodation Policy Statement

In accordance with rules of the Florida Board of Education and Florida law, students have the right to reasonable accommodations from the University in order to observe religious practices and beliefs with regard to admissions, registration, class attendance, and the scheduling of examinations and work assignments.
