b. Other Business

- a. Julie Earles introduced herself, new Associate Provost, touched on update on Visa for International students and new memo she will be releasing soon. January 2027 will find out if we can go back to H1B1 Visa. Also discussed CPT for Visa students. Does not currently have the answer for if program reviews will begin to happen again.
- b. Bob Stackman ran through how this meeting process/order goes; consent vs. action items.
- c. Deenah Ilario – research posters will happen again in the Spring (she is hoping for 100 student). Mentioned how grad students are interested in getting their research out and that they want to get involved with things on campus and always be able to easily access information.
- d. For the good of GPC: Stackman reiterated the steps for dismissal from programs.
- e. For the good of UGC: Dan Gorton asked about catalogue update regarding the ‘top matter’ for a college as a whole – do those changes need to go through the committee or can they just be submitted? The answer is that information can just be submitted directly to the Registrar.
- f. Save the Dates: Recruitment Workshop 9/17; Graduate College Open House 10/8; 3MT 10/26-10/28.
