Admission Requirements

Applicants to the M.N.M. program must have a bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited institution and an overall grade point average (GPA) of 3.250 or higher in ~~the last 60 credits~~ of their undergraduate program. Applicants must utilize the online application system and follow all directions to submit:

1. A current professional résumé.
2. A 750- to 1000-word essay about their personal background, career aspirations in the nonprofit sector and the reason(s) for pursuing graduate study in nonprofit management. The essay, written by the applicant, should demonstrate graduate-level writing competency.
3. Two letters of recommendation, one of which should be from a professor at the college/university the student attended. The recommenders must address the applicant's ability to succeed at graduate-level academic coursework in nonprofit management. (Personal recommendations are not accepted.)
4. Applicants who do not meet the 3.250 GPA requirement must complete and submit Graduate Record Examination (GRE) scores that are no more than five years old directly to the FAU Graduate College. Unofficial records are not acceptable.
5. Applicants whose native language is not English must complete the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) and earn a score of at least 550. Official scores must be sent directly to the FAU Graduate College.

Admission is competitive. Applicants meeting the minimum University and/or program application requirements are not guaranteed admission to the program. All requested materials must be submitted by the established deadline date (February 15 for summer admission, May 15 for fall admission and October 15 for spring admission). Materials received after the established deadline will not be considered.
