

Graduate Programs

College of Arts and Letters

Degree: Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.)

Major: Comparative Studies

Research Areas: Cultures, Languages, and Literature - Literature and Migration, Rhetoric and Composition, U.S. Multiethnic Literatures, Early Modern Literatures, Gender, Sexuality and Embodiment in Literature and Culture, Modernity and Postmodernity in Literature and Culture Space and Place in Literature, and Post Colonial Literature and Culture.

Culture, Society, and Politics - Sociocultural and Medical Anthropology, Bioarcheology, Ethnoarchaeology, Zooarchaeology, Primatology; Sociological Studies of Gender, Agriculture, Adulthood, Adolescence, Childhood, Race, Social Class, and Economics; Comparative Politics, American Politics, International Relations, Public Policy and Law, Post-Conflict Resolution, Democracy and Democratization, Political Behavior, and Quantitative Methods.

Important information about applying to Graduate School:

- ✓ Official Transcripts: Official Transcripts and/or Official Foreign Credential Evaluations must be received from each college or university attended. For more information on how to send transcripts, please visit our website.
- ✓ Supporting documentation: Supplemental documents should be uploaded as separate files as part of the online graduate application. NOTE: You will not be able to submit your application until all the supplemental materials are uploaded.
- ✓ Conduct: A "yes" answer to either of the conduct questions on the online application will require a written explanation. Additional information may be requested when your application is under review. Applications will not be fully processed until all conduct issues are cleared.
- ✓ Application status: Once your application has been submitted, you can check your application status online to ensure transcripts and test scores have been received.
- ✓ Residency classification: Your residency classification automatically defaults to non-Florida. After you are admitted, the residency officer will request additional documents by email if needed.

Contact/Information

Gabrielle Denier

Ph.D. in Comparative Studies
Dorothy F. Schmidt College of Arts and Letters
Arts and Humanities Building (AH-52), Room 214A
Boca Raton Campus Interactive Map

(T) 561.297.0155

(E) gdenier@fau.edu

(W) <http://www.fau.edu/comparativestudies/>

Application Deadlines

Domestic Students

Fall: January 15

For candidates not seeking PhD fellowships, the deadline is March 1

International Students

Fall: January 15

For candidates not seeking PhD fellowships, the deadline is March 1

Admission Requirements

Domestic Students

- BA, BFA, BS, MA, MS, or MFA degree
- Competitive scores in verbal, quantitative, and analytical writing sections of the GRE; must have taken within the past five years
- Three letters of recommendation; at least two from professors whose course(s) the applicant has taken. Letters should be current and attest to the applicants' intellectual qualifications for the Ph.D. in Comparative Studies.
- A statement of intent that outlines the applicant's field(s) of study and describes how your academic background has prepared you for this interdisciplinary program
- One academic paper, approx. 20 pages in length with scholarly documentation, which demonstrates the applicants analytical and explanatory skills and command of the discipline in the area of the Master's degree. Candidates who plan to work in lingua are required to submit an academic paper in that language.

International Students

- BA, BFA, BS, MA, MS, or MFA degree
- Competitive scores in verbal, quantitative, and analytical writing sections of GRE; must have taken within the past five years
- Three letters of recommendation; at least two from professors whose course(s) the applicant has taken. These letters should be current and attest to applicants' intellectual qualifications for the Ph.D. in Comparative Studies.
- A statement of intent that outlines the applicant's field(s) of study and describes how your academic background has prepared you for this interdisciplinary program.
- One academic paper, approx. 20 pages in length with scholarly documentation, which demonstrates the applicants analytical and explanatory skills and command of the discipline in the area of the Master's degree. Candidates who plan to work in lingua are required to submit an academic paper in that language.
- A general evaluation of international transcripts is required; FAU will do the evaluation or it must be done by a NACES member
- A competitive TOEFL, IELTS or Duolingo score is required