

HOW TO

Find Academic Resources On-Campus

Academic Coaching and Career Enhancement for Student Success (ACCESS)

Provides comprehensive workshops, one-on-one coaching, academic advising, tutoring, career counseling, and faculty mentoring to help students monitor course progress and overcome academic challenges.

Career Center

Career counseling, assistance with choosing a major, resume tips, mock interviews, internships, etc.

Center for Learning & Student Success

General academic assistance and referrals for all students; Supplemental Instruction, learning communities, tutoring and eLearner academic support

Center for Teaching & Learning

Math Learning Center; University Center for Excellence in Writing; Center for Learning and Student Success; Office of Undergraduate Research and Inquiry

Counseling & Psychological Services

FREE personal counseling for issues such as time management, stress management, etc.

FAU Library

Full array of services for circulation, reference assistance, special collections, instructional support, photocopying, interlibrary loan, course reserves, searchable databases and libguides; computers and printing; study rooms and laptop loans

Get Wise Center

A residential after-hour student support service center that offers group and individual study spaces, scantrons, S.I. tutoring, Writing Consultations, and much more.

Student Accessibility Services

SAS Provides academic support services include advocacy, academic accommodations, Assistive Technology equipment/software training, Assistive Technology Computer Lab, Learning Strategies training, and an active student organization

University Advising Services

Academic Advising for Freshmen (with less than 30 credits) or Undecided majors up to 60 credits

