SPRING HOLIDAYS: Ramadan, Easter and Passover

Ramadan, a holy month for Muslims, involves fasting from dawn to sunset, increased prayer, and acts of charity, culminating in Eid al-Fitr, a celebration marking the end of the fast. Passover, a Jewish holiday commemorating the Israelites' liberation from slavery in Egypt, and Easter, a Christian holiday celebrating the resurrection of Jesus Christ, are celebrated with distinct traditions, including special meals, religious services, and family gatherings, though both have roots in biblical narratives of freedom and redemption.
