FEBRUARY: Love, History, and Winter Traditions!

Valentine's Day (February 14)

In the U.S., this holiday isn't just for romance—it's about celebrating friendship and family, too!

- Tradition: Americans often exchange "Valentines" (small cards) and "Conversation Hearts" (candies with short English messages).
- English Tip: Try telling a classmate, "Happy Valentine's Day! I appreciate our friendship."

US Presidents' Day (February 16)

Presidents' Day is a federal holiday celebrated on the third Monday of February. While it officially honors the birthdays of George Washington (the first president) and Abraham Lincoln (who led the U.S. through the Civil War), it is now a day to recognize all American presidents, past and present.
