 - b. A description of your role and involvement

Hours will be recorded via Noble Hour and/or Co-Curricular Transcript

A plan of the series of citizenship and service experiences that you will participate in must be decided upon prior to participating in them. Once they are completed with documentation, LEAD will need to approve the completed tier.

Tier Three: Making Meaning and Facilitation

1. Upon approval and completion of Tier Two, students should actively reflect on their experience. The final tier is about making meaning of your experiences, including how those experiences have impacted you and shaped you to become the leader you are and a presentation to be peer-evaluated with fellow program participants based on the experiential knowledge obtained. Upon completion of

Tier Two, the presentation content should be discussed with Ashley Williams, LEAD Assistant Director and include theoretical application directed to empower other leaders with your experiences. Presentations can be completed from Oct. 26 – Nov. 13, 2015. Times and location will be determined as the program participants precede through Tier Two. A final 5 page paper (12 pt. font, double spaced) should be submitted at the time of presentation (which should also be inclusive of the below components) and include the following:

- a. Application of knowledge from Tier One for activities in Tier Two
- b. Reflection on Student Experience
 - i. Describe your leadership experiences over the entire program
 - ii. Identify leadership theories that relate to your experiences
 - iii. Identify what was most valuable about this experience
 - iv. Explain how you have evolved and transformed into a leader or more effective leader

Presentations will take place from Oct. 26 – Nov. 13, 2015 and will be conducted in front of other CSL participants and Student Affairs professionals. All presentations will be peer evaluated and returned to each presenter after all presentations are complete (third week of Nov.).
