Owl Breaks 2019

"Be the Change You Want to See in the World!"

Owl Breaks Featured Spotlight
Miami, FL Mar. 3-7, 2019

Known as the Magic City, Miami is known around the world for fashion, money, beautiful beaches, and more! However, the Miami-Dade County Homeless Trust estimates that more than 1,000 people are living on the streets throughout the county. This Owl Break trip seeks to understand the causes behind homelessness and food insecurity, as well as meet and work side-by-side with the community partners that are working every day to meet the needs of the homeless and food insecure populations in Miami.

We will be working with variety of community partners that strive to create positive change every day, including: Camillus House, Habitat for Humanity of Greater Miami, and Miami Rescue Mission.

To register for this trip, please click here. The fee to participate is $125 and covers lodging, meals, and transportation. If you need to make a payment plan, please contact Lead and Serve at leadandserve@fau.edu or call (561) 297-3607.
