

There's No

Without

You

---

Here's What You Should Know About FIGs

FIG = First-Year Interest Group

What is it?

- 1-credit course taken with fellow Owls in similar majors
- 8-week course

Here's What You Should Know About FIGs

- Courses are college specific
- Taught by faculty and staff from YOUR college
- Mixed online/classroom experience
- Opportunities to network and build community within YOUR college

Here's How Figs Benefit You

- 01 Create a sense of belonging within the larger FAU community.

Here's How Figs Benefit You

02 Build relationships with students in your major.

Here's How Figs Benefit You

03 Cultivate relationships with your instructors.

Here's How Figs Benefit You

04 Learn what it takes to excel in your major and as a college student.

Here's How You Check For Holds

-
- Log into MyFAU
  - Click "MyFAU Self Service"
  - Click "Student Services"
  - Click "Student Records"
  - Click "View Holds"

Find The Right FIG For You

Register for a
First-Year Interest Group (FIG) by scanning this QR code with your device.

- ➊ Click MyFAU
- ➋ Click "Student Services"
- ➌ Click "Registration"
- ➍ Click "Registration (add/drop)"
- ➎ Click The Grey Button That Says "Click Here For Registration"
- ➏ Click "Register For Classes"
- ➐ Select Fall 2022 - Course: SLS - Number: 1411
- ➑ Find the section that you want and click "Add" →
- ➒ Click "Submit" At The Bottom Of The Page

College	Section Number
☆ Arts & Letters	AL2
Business	BU1, BU2, BU3, BU4, BU5, BU6
Social Work & Criminal Justice	CD1
☆ Exploration in Diversity	DI1
Engineering & Computer Science	EG2
☆ Pre-Health	SC1, SC4
Science	SC3 , SC5
Exercise Science/Health Promotion	SC6

( ☆ ) Open To Any Major

We'd Love To Connect With You

Email:

iSucceed@fau.edu

Website:

To learn more about First-Year Interest Groups (FIGs), scan this QR code with your device.

