Internship Facts

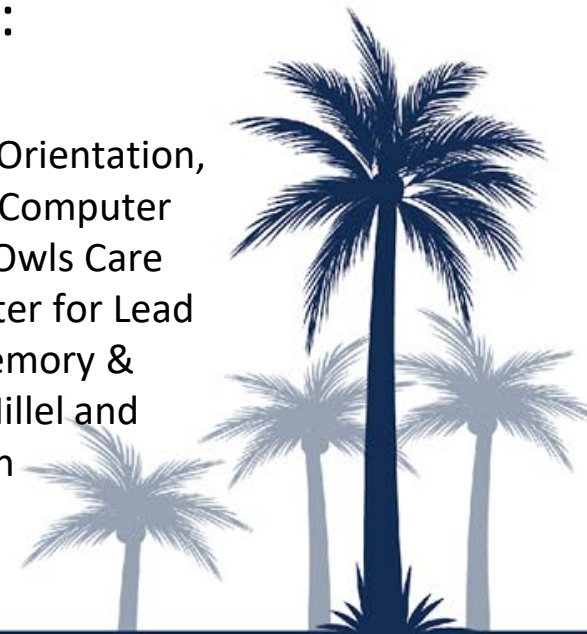

Are internships paid? Yes! The majority of internships are paid.

Are internships only off-campus? Internships can be both on and off campus.

FAU Departments include:

Housing and Residential Education, New Student Orientation, Student Government, College of Engineering & Computer Science, Campus Recreation Center, Athletics, Owls Care Health Promotion, Student Union, Weppner Center for Leadership & Service-Learning, Louis and Anne Green Memory & Wellness Center, Student Government, FAU Hillel and Comprehensive Center for Brain Health

Internship Facts

Do internships last only one semester?

Internships are typically one semester to one year long, but it is possible to receive an extension to continue interning.

Do you have to wait to apply for internships until your junior or senior year?

There are internship opportunities for all class standings, though some organizations may look for students with particular class standings or other qualifications.

Internship Facts

Are internships the only way to gain experience? No! There are Job Shadowing, Externships, On-Campus Jobs and Campus Involvement

What is the difference between an on-campus job and an internship? The internship will have set learning objectives/goals that the student will be working on throughout the semester. The internship will include project work and clerical work cannot exceed 20%.

Internship Facts

Can I balance an internship along with my studies?

Absolutely! Internships can be part-time working between 10-20 hours per week. Hours are typically flexible which will allow you to be a full-time student. For the summer semester some students take a semester off and work full-time.

Internship Facts

I am an international student. Can I do an internship?

Of course! International students can engage in an internship / CPT after being a FAU student for two consecutive semesters. They would need to sign up in a Professional Internship Course offered by the Career Center and be approved by FAU International Services Office.

Employers are Hiring their Interns!

$20.76 Average hourly wage for interns in 2021

66.4% Internship to Full-Time hire conversion rate in 2021

What does this mean?

Source: 2021 Internship & Co-op Survey, National Association of Colleges and Employers

Interns Stay Employed

Why do you think internship hires stay longer with an organization?

Try before you buy! Learn about company culture, company values and work-life balance

Interns are more likely to be with the company both one year and five years later!

The screenshot displays the Handshake Job Search page. At the top, the navigation bar includes 'handshake', 'For You', 'Jobs', 'Events', 'Students', 'Career Center', and a user profile 'Aileen'. The 'Job Search' section is highlighted in blue. Below this, there are search filters for 'Job Title, Employers, or Keywords' and 'City, State, or Zip Code'. Filter buttons include 'Full-Time Job', 'Part-Time Job', 'Internship', 'On-Campus', and 'Filters - 1'. A section for 'Popular searches for Instructional Technology majors' lists terms like 'teacher', 'principal', 'early childhood', etc. The main job listings area shows three results: 'Adam Putnam for Governor Internship Program' (Unpaid Part-Time Internship, Jacksonville, FL), 'Digital marketing Intern' (Part-Time Internship, Forest Hills, NY), and 'Volunteer Intern - Secret Woods Nature Center' (Unpaid Part-Time Internship, Fort Lauderdale, FL). Each listing includes an employer logo, job title, location, and application deadline. A sidebar on the right contains 'My Favorite Jobs' and 'Saved Searches' sections.

FOR ALUMNI

When you are launching your career, Micro-Internships provide a tremendous opportunity. Not only can you explore different career paths and work on interesting assignments, you can also demonstrate your abilities to potential employers while building your professional portfolio and network. Beyond that, your academic experience will improve as you apply what is taught in the classroom to the real world (and vice versa). Oh, did we forget to mention that you get paid for all of this?
