Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution

We aim to:

- Ensure a consistent, fair, and impartial conduct process that helps build students' decision-making skills and promotes behavioral changes to assist in their success at FAU.
- Partner with students to design experiences that strengthen interpersonal skill sets that maximize their readiness for the professional and global world.
- Offer service to the university community to further the understanding of the Student Code of Conduct and various conflict resolution techniques.

FIRST-YEAR SOAR

Conflict Management Tips

1. Remember the Circle of Control
2. Communication Check-In
3. Creating and respecting boundaries

Conflict is inevitable!

Parent/Guardian Notification

In compliance with the request of the Florida Board of Governors and FERPA, the Parental Notification Policy permits the University the right to inform parents or guardians when their student has been found in violation of the following:

1. University Alcoholic Beverages policy
2. Drug Free Environment policy
3. If the student is under the age of 18, the Notice of Charges will be sent to the parents/guardians.

Medical Amnesty and Community Wellbeing

- PRIORITIZE keeping yourself and your fellow Owls safe!*
- If you or a friend need medical attention due to alcohol or drug use, call 911! Proactively calling 911 and requesting emergency services will not result in conduct charges by the university
- See Something? Say Something!
