Medical Amnesty

PRIORITIZE keeping yourself and your fellow Owls safe!*

- If you or a friend need medical attention due to alcohol or drug use, call 911! Proactively calling 911 and requesting emergency services will not result in conduct charges by the university
- Know Something? Say Something!
 - Report a Concern: fau.edu/report

Community Guide

We aim to:

- Ensure a consistent, fair, and impartial conduct process that helps build students' decision-making skills and promotes behavioral changes to assist in their success at FAU.
- Partner with students to design experiences that strengthen interpersonal skill sets that maximize their readiness for the professional and global world.
- Offer service to the university community to further the understanding of the Student Code of Conduct and various conflict resolution techniques.

Victim Services

Candace Harrinarine
Associate Director

Brittany Mascetti

(ask to speak to an advocate)

victimservices@fau.edu

- Victim Services at Florida Atlantic is a resource available to all of Florida Atlantic's students, faculty, staff, and community members. Advocates are available to help, provide resources and navigate legal or university processes.
- Whether the incident occurred on or off campus, in the past, or recently, Victim Services is here to help.
- Victim Services can help with fraud, scams, discrimination, harassment, bullying, hazing, extortion, dating violence, domestic violence, physical assault, sexual assault, witnesses, threats, stalking, or being made uncomfortable by another person
- You do not have to submit an official report to speak to an advocate!

Respondent Services

- Provides guidance, resources, information, and referrals for students who have been accused of sexual misconduct violations of the Student Code of Conduct or the Anti-Discrimination and Anti-Harassment regulation
- Assists students with understanding their rights
- Aides students in navigating investigation and adjudication processes
