A Checking and Savings Account that Fits a Student's Life.

PNC Bank offers convenient tools and features that help busy students track their expenses.

Three accounts in one

Spend, a primary checking. Reserve, a secondary checking for planning like saving for books. Growth, a savings account for long-term savings like a new car.

Courtesy overdraft fee refund

Get one automatic courtesy fee refund of any Overdraft Item fee associated with your first overdraft event that occurs within 6 years of the date of account opening.²

No monthly service charge

Avoid the monthly service charge for the first 6 years after opening your account.¹

Wire transfers

Receive one incoming domestic or international wire transfer per statement period at no charge.

Digital Tools

Do your banking how and when you want to.

ZELLE®

With Zelle® in the PNC mobile app⁴, you can easily send and receive money with people you know and trust – wherever they bank in the U.S.⁸

Mobile deposit

With the PNC Mobile app, you can use your smartphone camera to deposit checks into your PNC account.⁴

Email and text alerts

Enroll to get notified of important account activity. Notices even include an option to alert family or friends when balances are low.⁷

Easy payments

Add your eligible PNC VISA® card to a digital wallet to shop in-store, in-app or online with your mobile or wearable device.

We're Committed to College

1. Virtual Wallet Student has no minimum balance requirement or monthly service charge for active students for six years from the date of account opening. You may be asked to provide proof of active enrollment in a qualifying educational institution. At the end of the six years, your account will be converted to Virtual Wallet and subject to the Virtual Wallet Features and Fees in effect at that time. If you transfer this account to a different product or account type during the first six years, you will forfeit the benefits of the Virtual Wallet Student account and will not be able to transfer back to the Virtual Wallet Student account.
2. Virtual Wallet Student accounts will receive an automatic courtesy refund of the fee for the first Overdraft. (Spend account only) Although the fee may be refunded, the transaction will be considered an overdraft occurrence when determining any subsequent overdraft fee. You will be responsible for paying the overdraft balance.
3. Low Cash Mode is only available on the Spend account of your Virtual Wallet product.
4. PNC does not charge a fee for Mobile Banking. However, third-party message and data rates may apply. These include fees your wireless carrier may charge you for data usage and text messaging services. Check with your wireless carrier for details regarding your specific wireless plan and any data usage or text messaging charges that may apply. Also, a supported mobile device is needed to use the Mobile Banking App. Mobile Deposit is a feature of PNC Mobile Banking. Use of the Mobile Deposit feature requires a supported camera-equipped device and you must download a PNC mobile banking app. Eligible PNC Bank account and PNC Bank Online Banking required. Certain other restrictions apply. See the mobile banking terms and conditions in the PNC Online Banking Service Agreement.
5. In order to avoid overdraft fees, you must bring the available balance in your account to at least $0 before your Extra Time expires. If you make a deposit, the time it takes for your deposit to be reflected in your available balance and for those funds to become available to you will vary based on the deposit type and time. Depending on your deposit type or your deposit time, your deposit may not be available before your Extra Time period expires, and you may incur overdraft fees. See your Funds Availability policy for more information. Overdrawing an account, maintaining a negative available balance for any period of time, and returning transactions as unpaid may have other consequences, including account closure or negative impacts to your ability to obtain financial services including loans, deposit accounts, and other services at PNC and other institutions.
6. Debit card transactions do not qualify for Payment Control. When you choose to return an item that has been presented to PNC for payment, we will return the item to the payee's bank for insufficient funds, and the payee will not receive payment from PNC. You may still have an obligation to pay the payee for goods, services or other products. PNC is not responsible for satisfying any obligations between you and the payee or any other party with respect to an item you decide to return. Before choosing to return an item, you should consider rules the payee may have or actions the payee may take on late/returned payments. Overdrawing an account, maintaining a negative available balance for any period of time, and returning transactions as unpaid may have other consequences, including account closure or negative impacts to your ability to obtain financial services including loans, deposit accounts, and other services at PNC and other institutions.
7. PNC Alerts are free to customers. However, third-party message and data rates may apply. These include fees your wireless carrier may charge you for data usage and text messaging services. Check with your wireless carrier for details regarding your specific wireless plan and any data usage or text messaging charges that may apply.
8. Zelle® should only be used to send money to or receive money from people you know and trust. Before using Zelle® to send money, you should confirm the recipient's email address or U.S. mobile phone number. Neither PNC nor Zelle® offers a protection program for authorized payments made with Zelle®. Zelle® is available to almost anyone with a bank account in the U.S. Transactions typically occur in minutes between enrolled users. If the recipient has not enrolled, the payment will expire after 14 calendar days. See the PNC Zelle Terms of Use for additional terms and conditions. Use of Zelle® is subject to and conditional upon adherence to the terms and conditions of the PNC Zelle® Terms of Use.
