Jeffrey Morton, Ph.D.
Worldwide Threat Assessment: Black Swans & Gray Rhinos
$SU4V (Summer 2020)
$30/member; $35/non-member

In this tour de force lecture, Foreign Policy Association Fellow Dr. Jeffrey Morton provides an assessment of threats to global peace and security that American foreign policymakers must prepare for. Black Swan events are rare and unpredictable shocks to the global system, events that we cannot anticipate yet pose grave risks to international security. Gray Rhino events are highly probable, high impact neglected threats that charge at us and must be diverted.
