OLLI OLLI FACULTY NEEDS YOU

More importantly, our OLLI instructors need your support more than ever. Our OLLI faculty play a massive role in the delivery of a world-class student experience. However, with so many priorities competing for their time—and so many priorities playing into their career progression—faculty members often do not have the opportunity to explore new ways to serve the community. But, with the support of their deans and FAU, OLLI Jupiter provides that opportunity. It is their impact on our lectures and courses that have made our program a success.

Overnight, our faculty found novel ways to reproduce the benefits of face-to-face interaction and on-campus experiences for our members during this pandemic. And while it is work in progress, they are continuously striving to bring you the online experience you desire. Please continue to support, not only our OLLI program, but the faculty as well, by signing up for new lectures and courses as they become available. As we move forward during this unprecedented time, we know for certain that our faculty will prepare proactively to present and construct an exemplary academic experience for our OLLI members.
