

Urban Male Initiative: Undergraduate Research Track

Year 1: Fall

- OURI to visit UMI meeting in the fall semester to discuss how to get started in research
- Visit OURI (GS 212) and meet an OURI peer mentor – discussion of how to find a research mentor (e.g., <https://researchhub.fau.edu/>)
- Attend OURI workshops e.g., How to Get Started in Research, How to Contact Faculty
- Identify a research mentor and begin conversations with the mentor
- Complete CITI training – Responsible Conduct of Research (RCR) modules and other research training as discussed with your faculty mentor

Year 1: Spring

- Meet with research faculty mentor and begin working on research project
- Attend the OURI Undergraduate Research Symposium in Spring

Year 1: Summer

- Continue working with faculty mentor in research

Year 2:

- Continue working with faculty mentor in research
- Apply for an internal/external summer research experience for undergraduates
  - OURI Summer Undergraduate Research Fellowship
  - NSF Research Experience for Undergraduates
  - Other research funding opportunities
- Present at the OURI Undergraduate Research Symposium in Spring

Year 2: Summer

- Continue working with faculty mentor in research and/or participate in a Summer research fellowship outside of FAU

Other opportunities to consider:

- Apply for Honors in the Major Programs
- Collaborate with faculty mentor to apply for an OURI Undergraduate Research Grant or the FAU WAVE Competition.
- Submitting your research to the Florida Atlantic Undergraduate Research Journal or to other regional or national journals (consult with your faculty mentor)
- Barry Goldwater Scholarship: sophomores and juniors who plan to go to grad school (Research focused)
- NSF GRFP: STEM graduate scholarships for research-focused graduate students (Seniors eligible)
- Present your research at a regional or national conference (consult with your faculty mentor)
  - Life Sciences South Florida (LSSF)- Regional
  - Florida Undergraduate Research Conference (FURC)- Statewide

- National Conference on Undergraduate Research (NCUR)

Contact Information

Please contact your faculty liaison dedicated to your academic college for additional inquiries

Office of Undergraduate Research and Inquiry (OURI):

Contact: FAU OURI.

Location: General Classrooms South GS suite 212

Email: ouri@fau.edu

Phone: 561-297-OURI