RI COURSE SYLLABUS CHECKLIST
Note: Please adhere to the Provost guidelines for course syllabi when creating your RI syllabus
RI course sample syllabus (RI syllabus)
RI Course Characteristics Evidenced in Syllabus:	✔
The course title should include Research intensive (RI: Course title)
Course Description (Please include Pre-requisites)
Syllabus language for RI designated courses (required).
Student Learning outcomes (Title before description)
Description of the 6 learning outcomes and how they apply to your course
Demonstrate how the course addresses and evaluates all six student learning outcomes SLOs (knowledge, formulate question, plan of action, critical thinking, ethics, communication)
Actively engage students in the process of research and inquiry
Generate tangible outcomes recognizable as products of research and inquiry in the discipline
Provide opportunities for students to communicate the design, method and results of the inquiry
Engage students in intensive-level research and inquiry activities
Recommended Language to facilitate inclusion of the Ethics and Communication SLOs in your syllabus
A significant portion of the course grade is tied to the RI Assignment(s) or products(s)
Classroom etiquette policy (if applicable)
Attendance Policy Statement
Disability Policy Statement
Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) Center
Code of Academic Integrity Policy statement	