Section 1. Membership in the Society is open to scholars from all academic disciplines without regard to race, color, gender, national origin, religion, age, disability, genetic information, or sexual orientation. Members are expected to behave with integrity and high ethical standards.

Section 2. The following membership categories are authorized:

2.1 Active members are those who have paid Society dues for the current year. Those who pay both Society dues and chapter dues are also active members of the Society and the chapter. Active members have access to all available benefits offered by the Society and may be eligible to serve on Society committees and hold Society office.

2.2 Inactive members are those who fail to pay Society dues for the current year. Inactive members do not enjoy the privileges of member benefits, voting, serving on committees, or serving as chapter or Society officers.

2.3 Life members are those who have been invited and initiated and have paid the life membership fee or have been accorded this status by the action of the Board. Life members of the Society who wish to remain active chapter members must continue to pay chapter dues.

2.4 Special memberships, distinguished or honorary, are nominated by a chapter, member, or the Board of Directors. Special memberships are conferred upon approval of the Society's Executive Director and Chief Executive Officer, Society President and appropriate Society Divisional Vice President. Appropriate fees are due from the chapter once the nomination has been approved. There are two types of special memberships:

2.4.1 A distinguished member is one who has served the Society in an outstanding manner and has shown a sustained record of leadership within the Society. The individual will receive a life membership in Phi Kappa Phi and a distinguished member certificate.

2.4.2 An honorary member is one who is not an alumnus/alumna, employee, or student of the chapter's institution but is an individual who has achieved eminence in some academic, creative, intellectual or other career endeavor. The individual will receive a life membership in Phi Kappa Phi and an honorary member certificate.

2.5 Meritorious Service Recognition. Members who have served their chapters may be awarded meritorious service recognition. This recognition does not require Society approval.

Section 3. Student eligibility for membership in an institutional chapter should be determined separately for each academic unit or program, e.g., department, school, or college. Academic achievement is the only criterion by which eligibility may be determined. For those institutions that do not rank students using grades, the chapter will include the method of determining eligibility in its chapter Bylaws.

Those persons recognized by individual chapters must be invited in compliance with the following standards:

3.1 Undergraduate students in any academic unit or program of a college or university who have had no charges of academic integrity or code of conduct resolved against them, and

3.1.1 who, as a junior (completed seventy-two (72) semester hours or one hundred eight (108) quarter hours), rank academically in the upper seven-and-a-half percent (7.5%) of the class, or

3.1.2 who, as a senior (completed ninety (90) semester hours or one hundred thirty-five (135) quarter hours), rank academically in the upper ten percent (10%) of the class.

3.2 Graduate and professional students in any academic unit or program of a college or university who have completed at least eighteen (18) semester hours or twenty-seven (27) quarter hours at that institution, and have had no charges of academic integrity or code of conduct resolved against them, and as post-baccalaureate degree students rank academically in the upper ten percent (10%) of all graduate and professional students at the time of invitation.

3.3 Any undergraduate, graduate, or professional student in any academic unit or program of a college or university who has had no charges of academic integrity or code of conduct violations resolved against them, may be recommended for membership by a faculty member or academic administrator. This membership pathway requires a compelling explanation by the faculty member or academic administrator of why and how the student fulfills the intent of Society membership. This recommendation will be sent to the chapter's Executive Committee and must be approved by that body, which will then inform the Society of the student's eligibility for membership.

3.4 All students and graduates who meet the requirements for membership are eligible.

Section 4. Members of the institution's faculty, administration, professional staff, alumni, or community leaders who exhibit excellence and high ethical standards may be extended membership invitations.

4.1 The total number invited may not exceed four percent (4) of the number of students invited by the chapter that year.

4.2 Chapters that invite fewer than two hundred (200) students per year may be allowed to initiate a maximum of eight (8) individuals per year.

Section 5. Membership Expectations

5.1 Members should conduct themselves at all times in a manner consistent with integrity and high ethical standards, including the standards described in the Code of Ethics and all other policies of the Society

5.2 If at any time, it becomes known to the Society that, after initiation, a member has failed to behave with integrity and high ethical standards, or is otherwise in violation of the Code of Ethics or other policies, the person's membership may be revoked by either the chapter or by the Society's Board of Directors.

5.3 If the Board of Directors becomes aware of potential grounds to revoke a person's membership, the Society Executive Director shall notify the chapter's Executive Committee of the potential grounds for revocation of membership and request that the chapter determine whether it will proceed with membership revocation procedures.

5.3.1 The chapter shall notify the Society Executive Director of its decision within one (1) week of receiving the request.

5.3.2 In the event the chapter declines to proceed with consideration of membership revocation, the Board of Directors may vote to consider membership revocation.

5.4 Grounds for revocation of membership include, but are not limited to, the following:

5.4.1 a charge of academic integrity resolved against the member;

5.4.2 an institutional code of conduct charge resolved against the member;

5.4.3 a criminal conviction of a felony or misdemeanor that reflects that the member failed to act with integrity and high ethical standards;

5.4.4 failure to follow the Society's Code of Ethics;

5.4.5 violating the Society's Social Media Policy;

5.4.6 engaging in or promoting content that constitutes defamation, discrimination, harassment, bullying, threats of violence or harm, or spreading information that is harmful, false, or deceptive; or other conduct reflecting poorly on the Society's mission and ethical standards, in any form; or

5.4.7 any other conduct where a member fails to act with integrity or high ethical standards.

5.5 If the membership is revoked, the person has the right to appeal to the Society Executive Director within sixty (60) days of the date the membership was revoked. The Society Executive Director's decision is final.
