

FLORIDA ATLANTIC UNIVERSITY

Office of the President

March 2, 2017

Dear Prospective Member of Phi Kappa Phi:

Congratulations on earning your invitation to become a member of The Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi. This invitation from the Florida Atlantic University chapter recognizes and honors you for your outstanding academic achievements. Invitations are extended to top juniors and seniors, as well as outstanding graduate students, faculty members, professional staff and alumni. Founded in 1897, Phi Kappa Phi is the oldest and most prestigious honor society in the United States that recognizes scholastic achievement in all fields of academic endeavor. Members include United States Presidents, Supreme Court Justices, and U.S. Senators and Representatives, as well as great scholars, scientists, artists and authors.

Membership in Phi Kappa Phi offers distinct advantages in both the academic world and the job market. Graduate school admissions committees and employers alike know that Phi Kappa Phi members are the very best students in their colleges and universities. Phi Kappa Phi's National Office offers more than $700,000 in yearly scholarships and grants. Florida Atlantic's chapter awards $10,000 in annual scholarships.

Please carefully examine the membership information provided to you and seriously consider accepting membership in the nation's oldest, largest and most selective all-discipline honor society. For more information about membership and scholarships visit the Society's website: <http://www.fau.edu/pkp>

Congratulations on your success at Florida Atlantic University!

Sincerely,

John Kelly
President
