COURSE SELECTION TIPS

GENERAL INFORMATION

Dual enrollment students are welcome to take any course within the University Catalog that fits within our registration guidelines.

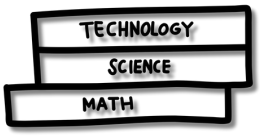

Dual Enrollment students may not register for:

- Courses that are less than three credits without a corresponding lecture/lab
- Courses that are pass/fail or satisfactory/unsatisfactory
- Directed independent study courses
- Study abroad courses
- Graduate level courses
- Courses for which prerequisites have not been met

Dual Enrollment students are only permitted to register for four courses within the College of Business

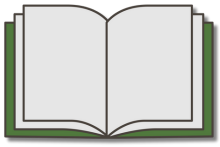

ECO 2013 – Macroeconomics
ECO 2023 – Microeconomics
GEB 2011 – Introduction to Business
ISM 2000 – Information Systems Fundamentals

RESOURCES

CURRICULUM SHEETS BY MAJOR

This is a great place to start if you are interested in a particular major. Here, you can view course requirements for each major at FAU. Many of these courses meet our registration guidelines.

UNIVERSITY CATALOG

Use the University Catalog to view course descriptions for all courses offered at FAU. The catalog includes upper-division courses. Not all of these courses fit within the Dual Enrollment registration guidelines.

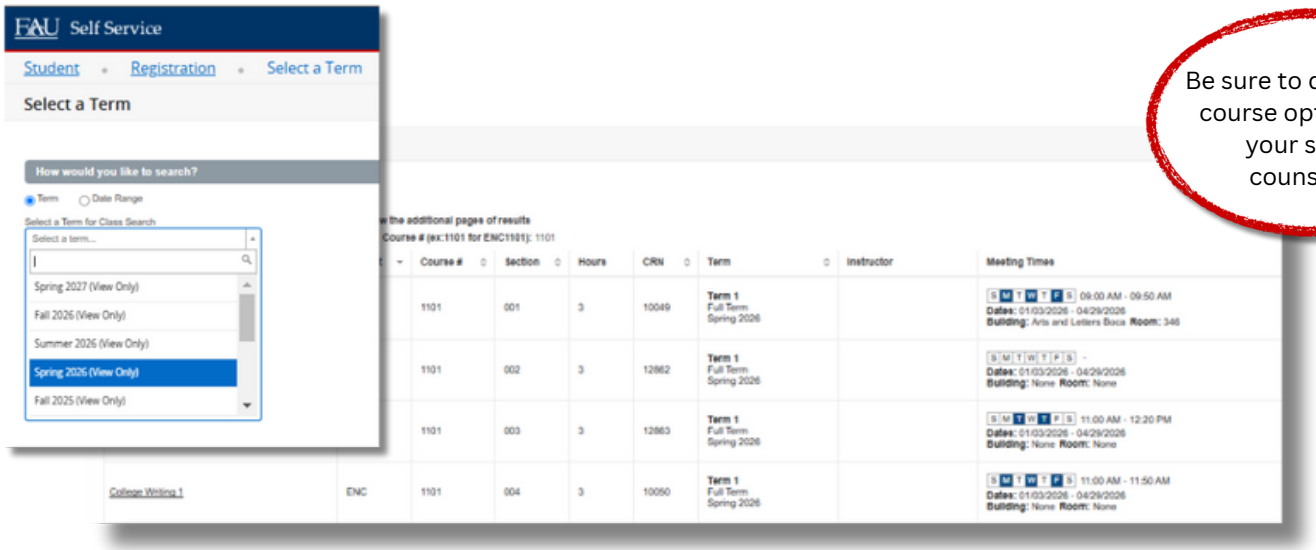

GENERAL EDUCATION CURRICULUM

This is a great place to start if you are undecided about your major. Here you will find lower-division courses that fulfill the general education requirement at FAU.

AVAILABILITY

Since course availability is not guaranteed, we recommend having back up options. You can view which courses are available during the term you are applying for in the Searchable Schedule. Additionally, the Searchable Schedule will show you if the course is offered online or during a time that works for you.

Be sure to discuss any course options with your school counselor!
