

VIRTUAL RESEARCH IN ACTION

Did you know when it comes to living on the streets, women face different obstacles in finding a permanent solution to escaping?

Join Danielle Groton, Ph.D., as she talks about ways women can combat homelessness, and what the community can do to help, including:

- Establishing long-term housing
- Breaking down barriers to employment, leading to financial stability
- Supporting related programs and strategies for social workers
- Improving access to healthcare

Help Her Find a Way Home: Escaping Homelessness

Presented by Danielle Groton, Ph.D.,
Assistant Professor, College of Social Work and Criminal Justice
