If the Student Body President is to veto the UBAC legislation, the Senate has the power to either make amendments to the vetoed legislation or exercise presidential overriding powers as set forth in 407.315. Upon failing to garner enough votes to override the presidential veto, the Senate must make amendments to the UBAC legislation, as seen fit.

If the VPSA vetoes the UBAC legislation, the Senate must make amendments to the UBAC legislation, as seen fit.

In the scenario that the UBAC legislation fails to pass at the Senate level after attempts to amend the bill are made, the Student Body President shall call two emergency meetings via Executive Order powers, as set forth in 500.525; an emergency UBAC meeting to be held within (3) days of the legislation failing to pass through the Senate with amendments; and an emergency Senate meeting scheduled approximately one (1) week after the UBAC legislation failed to pass through the Senate with amendments.

Following the calling of an emergency UBAC meeting by the Student Body President, the UBAC will have no more than one (1) day to make amendments to the initial budget recommendation and resubmit legislation to the Senate.

If the Senate fails to pass amended UBAC legislation after completing the statutory procedures set forth in 209.110, the UBAC’s amended budgetary recommendation will bypass the Senate and be forwarded to the Student Body President.

209.118 Upon the Student Body President’s approval of the amended UBAC budget via Executive Order, the recommendation will be forwarded to the VPSA for approval.

209.119 If for any reason the Senate is unable to pass the amended UBAC legislation due to failure to meet Quorum, the amended recommendation will follow the same approval process as set forth in 209.117.

209.200 Upon the VPSA’s approval of the UBAC budget, ASAB shall compile budget worksheets for the BRBAC, MBAC, and BBAC.

209.300 Upon the passing of each CBAC recommendation through the respective Campus House of Representatives, each legislation shall be forwarded to the respective Student Body Governor, followed by the Student Body President, followed by the Vice President of Student Affairs.

209.310 Upon the vetoing/rejection of the CBAC recommendation by the respective Campus House of Representatives, the respective Student Body Governor, the Student Body President, or the VPSA, several courses of action are available for the respective House of Representatives to take.
209.311 If a House fails to pass its CBAC legislation after its initial proposal, the House shall make amendments to its CBAC legislation, as seen fit.

209.312 If the Student Body Governor or President is to veto a House’s CBAC legislation, the House has the power to either make amendments to the vetoed legislation or exercise gubernatorial/presidential overriding powers as set forth in the House’s respective campus-based statutes or 407.315. Upon failing to garner enough votes to override a gubernatorial or presidential veto, the House must make amendments to the CBAC legislation, as seen fit.

209.313 If the VPSA vetoes the CBAC legislation, the House must make amendments to the CBAC legislation, as seen fit.

209.314 In the scenario that the CBAC legislation fails to pass at the respective House level after attempts to amend the bill are made, the respective Student Body Governor shall call two emergency meetings via Executive Order powers, as set forth in 500.525; an emergency CBAC meeting to be held within (3) days of the legislation failing to pass through the House with amendments; and an emergency House meeting scheduled approximately one (1) week after the CBAC legislation failed to pass through the House with amendments.

209.315 Following the calling of an emergency CBAC meeting by the Student Body Governor, the CBAC will have no more than one (1) day to make amendments to the initial budget recommendation and resubmit legislation to the respective House.
209.316 If the House fails to pass amended CBAC legislation after completing the statutory procedures set forth in 209.310, the CBAC’s amended budgetary recommendation will bypass the House and be forwarded to the Student Body Governor.

209.317 Upon receipt of the amended CBAC budgetary recommendation, the Student Body Governor must formally approve of the exact same amended recommendation via an Executive Order; the Executive Order must indicate the specific adjustments made to the initial CBAC recommendation that are reflected on the amended CBAC recommendation.

209.318 Upon the Student Body Governor’s approval of the amended CBAC budget via Executive Order, the recommendation will bypass the Student Body President and be forwarded to the VPSA for approval.

210.300  Upon an account manager requesting an A&S deposit into their respective reserve account, the UBAC shall be responsible for determining the allocation amount.

210.310  If an account manager were to request a deposit into their respective reserve account, approving their deposit request would reduce the total A&S allocations available to the UBAC.

210.400  Prior to authorizing deposit requests to the reserve accounts, the UBAC shall ensure that the VPSA’s reserve budget does not exceed ten (10) percent of the total annual A&S budget.

supported by a particular TAG, or the reservation of funding for future Student Government projects.

211.510 The Student Government Revenue ‘budget’ recommended by the UBAC is not an allocation; instead, it shall be a blank budget structure that is proposed by the UBAC in order to provide the Student Senate with the ability to reappropriate funds from the active fiscal year into the Revenue account to be recycled into the following fiscal year.

211.800 The Student Senate shall allocate funds from the Senate Contingency into the Student Government Revenue account by the final Senate meeting of the Spring semester.

211.900 The Student Senate shall be responsible for ensuring that enough funds exist within the Senate Contingency account that would allow for a full reappropriation of funds into the Student Government Revenue account.

211.910 If the Student Senate does not allocate funds into the Student Government Revenue account by the final Senate meeting of the Spring semester, the budget approved by the UBAC will revert to $0 for the following fiscal year.
