  - Current student-athletes may be assembled and used from demonstration purposes during a camp, as long as it is outside of the playing season and within the weekly hour limitations for that sport.
  - If current student-athletes are participating in a scrimmage during an institutions camp/clinic, it is impermissible for the institution's coaching staff to observe the scrimmage. Specifically, "open events" or "games" played between campers and student-athletes may not be viewed by coaching staff members.
  - Student-athletes with remaining eligibility may not conduct their own camp.
  - A coach must provide the Compliance Office a list of student-athlete employees and their rate of pay prior to camp employment.

Prospective Student-Athlete Camp Employment

- High school, preparatory school or two-year college athletes, or any other individual being recruited by an institution, may not be employed by any camp/clinic.
- Exception — Employment after Commitment. An institution may employ a prospective student-athlete in a camp or clinic, provided he or she has signed a National Letter of Intent or the institution's written offer of admission and/or financial aid or the institution has received his or her financial deposit in response to its offer of admission. Compensation may be paid only for work actually performed and at a rate commensurate with the going rate in the locality for similar services. Such compensation may not include any remuneration for value or utility that the student-athlete may have for the employer because of the publicity, reputation, fame or personal following that he or she has obtained because of athletics ability. A prospective student-athlete who only lectures or demonstrates at a camp/clinic may not receive compensation for his or her appearance at the camp/clinic.

High-School, Preparatory-School or Two-Year College Coaches

- A high-school, preparatory school or two-year college coach may be employed by a camp, provided:
  - The coach is compensated at the going rate for camp counselors of like teaching ability and camp experience.
  - The coach may not be paid on the basis of the coach's reputation or contact with prospects.
  - The coach may not be compensated or reimbursed based on the number of campers the coach sends or brings to the camp.

Football and Basketball camp employment:

- It is not permissible for an institution to employ (i.e. volunteer or paid) an individual associated with a recruited prospective student-athlete at the institution or men's basketball staff member's camp/clinic.
