College Service

- 2021 CSWCJ Community Conversations: “Preventing Mass Violence in Palm Beach County” (September 9, 2021). I joined a panel of practitioners for an illuminating discussion on the key predictors of violence. We introduced specific services PBC is deploying to prevent future acts of mass violence in our communities.
- 8/2016-2020 College for Design and Social Inquiry (CDSI) Faculty Assembly Steering Committee. To foster faculty governance in the College a steering committee was formed by the Dean. The committee collaborates with the Dean’s office and helps to set the agenda for College-wide faculty meetings. Each Department has a representative on the committee. I was selected as the representative for the School of Criminology and Criminal Justice (CCJ). My Description comprise attending monthly steering committee meetings, contributing to discussions on CDSI matters and recording minutes to be shared with the entire faculty.
- 2016 Expo 2016. (10/15/16). The Annual Expo was held at FAU Stadium. The Expo is geared towards high school seniors interested in coming to FAU. The SCCJ had a display table and we spoke to more than 100 potential students. We talked about the advantages of enrolling in the CJ bachelor’s program.
- 2016 College Connect 2016. (9/29/16). This was the inaugural College Connect event. It was introduced by the University to allow Departments to “connect” with current students. The event ran from 11 am – 3pm. We connected with students who were already CJ majors and current FAU undeclared major students.
- 2016 CDSI Campus Day 2016 (3/18/16). Description: I spoke to a room of uncommitted freshman candidates. I talked about my background, research and teaching. The aim was to promote the benefits of our BACJ program and make potential students aware of opportunities offered within the program.

- 2015                    CDSI Interim-Dean Search Committee (4/30/15 - 5/28/15).
Description: I was selected to represent the SCCJ on a search committee appointed by the Provost. The work of the committee included a discussion of the strengths and weaknesses of each candidate. At the end of the discussions the committee submitted a report to the Provost to assist him in the selection of the interim dean for the College for Design and Social Inquiry.
- 2015                    CDSI Recruitment Video. Description: I wrote a recruitment script in preparation for a recruitment video for the College for Design and Social Inquiry (FAU) during the Spring semester. The goal was to inform potential students about the CCJ major and the achievements of our alumni.
- 2015                    Expo 2015. The Annual Expo is geared towards high school seniors interested in coming to FAU. I worked at the SCCJ table in the CDSI section. I spoke with students about the advantages of enrolling in the CJ bachelor's program.
- 2014                    Expo 2014. The Annual Expo is geared towards high school seniors interested in coming to FAU. I worked at the SCCJ table in the CDSI section. I spoke with students about the advantages of enrolling in the CJ bachelor's program.

University Service

- 2021                    Breezeway Dialogues – “The Crisis of Race in Policing: Wrong, Right and Everything in Between.”: This public dialogue with the FAU community was developed to explore the merits of multiple perspectives and discover a roadmap for respectful, civil discourse on policing and race. I joined Dr. Seth Fallik and Chameli Singh (Student moderator) to lead this conversation (November 3, 2021).
- 2021                    Panelist at Thrive Talks: I joined a panel of 4 faculty members from around the university for the virtual event, “Rekindling that Fire: Strategies for Surviving, Sustaining and Soaring at Work.” This is an ongoing monthly mental health and wellness series by faculty and staff for faculty and staff. (April 1, 2021).
- 2021                    Guest Speaker: I was invited to speak at the inaugural FAU Police Department Citizen's Academy; Title of presentation – “Body-Worn Cameras in America: Benefits, Challenges and Implications.” This session was conducted virtually on March 4th 2021.

- 2020 Panelist at Real Talk: I joined a panel of local police chiefs and community activists for the event, “Working Towards Transparency, Equity, and Accountability in Policing.” With calls for “defunding police” on the rise following several high profile cases of alleged police brutality, participants had the opportunity to openly address: Current issues and impact of policing; The perceptions versus reality of police brutality; The challenges of identifying as black and blue; What does “defunding police” really mean; The need to humanize police officers; What to expect concerning policing at FAU and some surrounding cities. (July 17, 2020).
- 2020 Guest Speaker at Fireside Chat - Roses in Concrete: I was a speaker at this event hosted by CCEI. I addressed the state of criminal justice, and suggestions for short-term and long-term goals moving forward, especially when Black Lives Matter protests dissipate and national attention wanes regarding racial injustice issues. (June 11, 2020).
- 2020 Panelist at Real Talk: I was a panelist for the Real Talk event “No Easy Answers: Examining the Current Climate in America” in the aftermath of the death of George Floyd at the hands of police officers. Real Talk is a facilitated series of discussions hosted by the Center for IDEAS. The discussion allows students, faculty and staff to engage in constructive and respectful dialogue while sharing their views and experiences (June 5, 2020).
- 2020 Choose FAU Day: I was a panelist for the “Choose FAU Day” event for prospective students. I presented an overview of SCCJ programs and promoted a range of academic and professional opportunities for incoming criminal justice majors. This event was conducted virtually due to the global pandemic (Saturday, April 18, 2020).
- 2020 Guest Panelist: Panel discussion during Social Justice Week at FAU entitled: “Activism, Advocacy, and Allyship in Critical Times.” The event was hosted by the Center for Inclusion, Diversity Education and Advocacy (IDEA). (Wednesday, January 22, 2020). I joined content experts in an effort to increase students’ understanding of and participation in activism across disciplines (social, political, environmental, etc.) through critical pedagogy and thought.
- 2016 FAU Open House 2016 (4/9/16). Description: I participated in the College Breakout Session for CDSI. This involved speaking to high school students and their parents who were interested in CCJ. I discussed the strengths of our degree programs and was available afterwards to take questions one-on-one.
- 2015 Guest Speaker at FAU Pre-Law Society Meeting. I was invited to speak at the Pre-Law Society on 2/18/15. The title of my presentation was ‘The Social Conscience of Lawyering in American Criminal Justice.’

Service to the Discipline/Profession

- 2019-Present      Member of Board of Advisors for Southern Illinois University Press:
I am an advisor on a book series entitled “Perspectives on Crime & Justice.” Description: Promoting the series and encouraging authors to consider developing book proposals; Reviewing book proposals.

Service to Community/Practitioners

- 2021                Guest Speaker: I was invited to speak at the 42nd Citizen’s Criminal Justice Academy; Title of presentation – “Body-Worn Cameras in America: Benefits, Challenges and Implications.” This session was held at Palm Beach County Vista Center 2300 Jog Road West Palm Beach (February 8, 2021).
- 2020                Guest Speaker: “Moving from Diversity to Justice.” Virtual workshop for practitioners hosted by the Sandler School of Social Work, FAU. I joined the main presenters Crystal Morris and Jeffrey Shearer. The workshop was designed to create a safe space for practitioners to learn about their personal biases, sit in the uncomfortable feelings that arise and then go forward with changing the way they offer services (This workshop was offered on June 26 & July 10, 2020).

- 2020 Guest Speaker: I was invited to speak at the 40th Citizen’s Criminal Justice Academy; Title of presentation – “Do body-worn cameras make people safer?” This session was held at the West Palm Beach Police Department.
- 2019 Guest Speaker: Presented research on body-worn cameras at the Citizen’s Criminal Justice Academy, November 18, 2019, Palm Beach County Sheriff’s office, 3228 Gun Club Road, West Palm Beach. The CCJA was created by the Palm Beach County Criminal Justice Commission and provides an opportunity for citizens to learn more about how the criminal justice system functions in the County. It features speakers from the local, state and federal criminal justice system.
- 2019 Guest Panelist: Panel discussion on Michelle Alexander’s book, “The New Jim Crow: Mass Incarceration in the Age of Colorblindness.” at the Palm Beach County Library – (Lantana Road Branch) Lake Worth, FL. (Wednesday, July 24, 2019). I joined members of the Criminal Justice Commission along with other guests and residents from the community to explore issues of concern regarding race and criminal justice.
- 2018 Guest Presenter at the Community Advisory Board (CAB) Meeting for the City of Miami. (Thursday, May 3, 2018). The meeting was held in the neighborhood of Liberty City. I joined my colleague Dr. Atkin-Plunk to present on the theory and practice of procedural justice, and provided recommendations for procedural justice in policing to the Board and guests in attendance. The CAB advises the Miami Police Department (MPD). The US Department of Justice and the MPD entered into an Agreement in March 2016 with the goal of ensuring that police services continue to be delivered to the people of the City of Miami in a manner that fully complies with the Constitution and laws of the US and promotes public confidence in MPD and its officers.
- 2017 Guest Presenter at Criminal Justice Commission Annual Planning Meeting. (Monday, February 27, 2017). I joined my colleague Dr. Atkin-Plunk to present a primer on procedural justice, implicit bias, and body-worn cameras to members of the CJC, which consists of 22 high-ranking public and 11 private sector members. Public sector members include the State Attorney, Public Defender, Chief Judge of the 15th Judicial Court, PBSO Sheriff, West Palm Beach Police Chief, Chief Probation Office for the Department of Juvenile Justice, Circuit Administrator for the Florida Department of Corrections, Resident Agent in Charge of the ATF, Assistant Supervisory Agent in Charge of the FBI, Resident Agent in Charge of the DEA, among others.
- 2017 Guest Presenter at Criminal Justice Commission’s Body-Worn Cameras Committee (8/17). I joined Director John Smykla to discuss the effectiveness of BWCs and the importance of implementing BWCs in a way that respects civil rights and promotes transparency in the community.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT – WORKSHOPS

- 4/20                    EARL Risk Assessment Training: The Early Assessment Risk Lists (EARLs) are evidence-based, gender-sensitive risk assessment tools for use with children between the ages of 6 and 11 with disruptive behavior problems. They are structured clinical risk assessment guides that provide a comprehensive framework for practitioners to evaluate a range of child, family and community risk factors known to influence young children's propensity to engage in future antisocial behavior, so that appropriate treatment and risk management plans can be implemented. This training was facilitated by a representative from SNAP – A crime prevention model program developed in Canada by the Child Development Institute (4/29-4/30).
- 12/17                    “Justice is not a Boat:” Restorative justice workshop hosted by the Peace, Justice and Human Rights initiative at FAU. This all-day workshop fostered collaboration with scholars and practitioners and encouraged participants to reflect on their work and the value that we can add to the community. The workshop comprised large-group and small-group sessions, and required participants to collaborate on writing assignments and discussions. This process helped participants to be more engaged and mindful citizens, researchers and instructors.
- 6/16 - 8/16            Summer 2016, eCertification Workshop at the FAU Center for eLearning. Faculty and staff learned new pedagogical approaches for online learning and how to teach effectively in an online environment. The knowledge and skill acquired are also transferrable to face-to-face classes.
- 9/16                    Leadership and Professional Development Workshop. This workshop was designed for faculty currently serving in administrative roles and those who might consider an administrative position in future. We discussed different types of leadership styles and scholarship on effective leadership outcomes. Facilitated by Dr. Jeffrey Buller. FAU Center for eLearning, Boca Raton.
- 4/15                    Workshop for New Faculty at FAU. Modules: (i) What Kind of Professor are You? (ii) Our Role in Supporting Student Success; (iii) Integrating Teaching and Research. Recruiting Room, FAU Stadium, Boca Raton.
- 9/14                    Teaching Workshop for CCJ Faculty. Constructing Valid and Reliable Tests. Presented by Dr. Jeanne Stinchcomb. School of Criminology and Criminal Justice Florida Atlantic University.

- 8/14                    CCJ P&T Workshop. Presented by Dr. Jeanne Stinchcomb. This workshop on promotion and tenure was designed to help non-tenured faculty navigate the demands and responsibilities of the tenure track.
- 10/12                   Adobe Presenter and Adobe Connect training. Distance Learning Services at Michigan State University, Main Library.
- 9/10                    Effective Teaching on Time. (Part of MSU's Certificate in College Teaching Competency). Presenter: Kevin Johnston, Director, Teaching Assistant Programs, Michigan State University.
