

Erin Michele Veit

eveit@fau.edu

201 SE 6th Street, #3872
Ft. Lauderdale, FL, 33301

Education

2002-2005 University of Miami School of Law, Miami, FL

- Juris Doctor
- Member of the Wrongful Convictions Project

1997-2001 Florida Atlantic University, Boca Raton, FL

- Bachelor of Arts, major Social Sciences, minor Sociology
- Graduated with Honors

Employment

Jan 2005-Present Attorney, Law Office of the Public Defender, Broward County, FL

- Currently assigned to the Capital Crimes Division
- Represented clients in various criminal divisions – Juvenile Court, Dependency Court, Felony Trial Court, Repeat Offender Court, and Major Crimes Division
- Over 75 trials

Jan 2013-Present Coach, Nova Southeastern University, Shepard Broad Law Center

- Select students to be members of the Nova Trial Association's Mock Trial Team
- Teach, train, and prepare students to compete in the American Bar Association's Criminal Justice Trial Competition
- Travel with students to competitions and work with them throughout the entire process

Jan 2004-Jan 2005 Law Clerk, Law Offices of Kevin H. Fabrikant, North Miami Beach, FL

- Conducted extensive legal research in the areas of corporate and entertainment law
- Wrote comprehensive memoranda of law for all clients
- Assisted in motion writing and trial preparation

Aug 2003-Dec 2003 Law Clerk, *Law Offices of Alan E. Weinstein, Miami Beach, FL

- Conducted extensive legal research in the areas of criminal defense and family/divorce law
- Assisted in trial preparation
- Transcribed client interviews and prepared memoranda of law for all clients

Summer 2003 Intern, *Office of the District Attorney, Staten Island, NY

- Worked under the close supervision of Supreme Court felony level Assistant District Attorneys in the narcotics division
- Organized narcotics felony case files from initial arrest through trial

References available upon request