

CONVERSATIONS ON RACIAL POLITICS AND SOCIAL JUSTICE
IN LATIN AMERICA AND THE CARIBBEAN

A CASE FOR AFRO-LATINX: THE TOWERING EXAMPLE OF ARTURO A. SCHOMBURG

VANESSA VALDÉS, PH.D., DIRECTOR,
BLACK STUDIES PROGRAM AT THE CITY COLLEGE OF NEW YORK
2:30 pm, Wed., February 17 | FREE VIRTUAL EVENT

By sharing her research on the "Cultural Production of Peoples of African Descent throughout the Americas", Valdés' talk highlights aspects of Arturo Schomburg's life as an Afro-Latino and underscores how these features shape Afro-Latina/o/x identity development. She will also touch upon womanhood and how Afro-Latina/xs make sense of their identity through non-Western cultural traditions.

For more information, contact Alejandra Aguilar, Ph.D., at maguilardornelle@fau.edu or Nuria Godón, Ph.D., at ngodon@fau.edu

REGISTER FOR ZOOM: tinyurl.com/ACaseforAfroLatinx

SIGMA DELTA PI

Sponsored by The Center for IDEAS,
Department of English and
Department of Sociology

