   b. Next, Dr. Wagner discusses the HEDS Survey that was sent out last week.
   c. Finally, Dr. Wagner presents the composition of the Faculty Senate. The report was sent to the Faculty Assembly Chairs.

4. Guest Speakers
   a. Dr. James Capp - Research Space Committee Update
      - Dr. James Capp presents the Research Space Committee Update.
      - Research space is scarce at FAU (9% of Boca Raton campus footprint per 2019 report by the Florida Office of Program Policy Analysis and Government Accountability)
      - Florida Atlantic has some of the lowest utilization rates of research space compared to other state universities, according to multiple different measures
      - The Legislature and the Board of Governors both recommend implementing accountability measures to promote productivity in research space
      - Increased productivity is also essential to the FAU 2015-2025 Strategic Plan, which establishes aspirations to rank as a Top 100 public school in US News and World Report and become an R1 Carnegie-designated institution
      - The Initial research space policy drafted by Division of Research in 2016
      - The Draft presented to University Faculty Senate in 2019
      - The Provost charged the committee to redevelop the framework in August 2020 with a deadline to share with UFS Steering by October 2020 and Full Senate by December 2020.
      - Committee membership includes James Capp - Provost’s Office, Donna ChamelyWiik - Chemistry and Undergraduate Research, Salvatore Lepore – Chemistry, Dan Meeroff - Civil, Environmental and Geomatics Engineering, Sarah Milton - Biological Sciences and Karin Scarpinato – Division of Research.
      - The Initial report of opportunities and challenges shared at UFS Steering in December 2020.
      - Currently, we are awaiting feedback on the new draft from Deans, Division of Research, and others.
b. Dr. Patricia Kollander – Academic Program Committee Update
   • Dr. Patricia Kollander presents the Academic Program Committee Update.
   • Full committee has met biweekly since January 15 to exchange ideas and come up with a set of metrics that may be used assess performance of degree programs.
   • Co-chairs have made data requests from IEA and Burning Glass (an analytics software company that provides real-time data on job growth, skills in demand, and labor market trends)
   • Co-chairs have met with Faculty Steering, Senate and SWAT research metrics committees for input regarding metrics. Will soon with Faculty Senate Budget and Planning and the Council of Deans.
   • Recommendations include current status in BOG productivity threshold, current pipeline, job growth, research dollars and student accessibility of degree program.
