

Catalog Change: Leadership and Human Resource Development Minor

Explanation

The Management Programs faculty wishes to increase the options available to students for the minor in Leadership and Human Resource Development. This change will involve moving from 12 required credits to 9 required credits and selecting 3 credits from a list of options. Thus, the total credits required for the minor will remain unchanged at 12, but now students have options among courses offered. The catalog listing will be as follows.

Leadership and Human Resource Development Minor

Effective leadership, change management and human resource planning and development are critical in today's competitive business environment. The minor in Leadership and Human Resource Development is designed to enhance students' personal leadership potential, capacity to implement organization change and ability to organize and develop employees. Students examine contemporary leadership models, strategies for approaching organizational transformation and employee intervention processes.

The minor is available to Business or non-Business majors interested in leadership and human resource development in organizations. Students must complete four courses below (12 credits) with a grade of "C" or better.

Total Credits: 12
Required Courses (nine credits):
Introduction to Management and Organizational Behavior	MAN 3025	3
Leadership, Supervisory Skills, and Team Development	MAN 4046	3
Human Resource Management	MAN 4301	3
Take three credits from among the following courses:
Human Resources Development	MAN 4350	3
Human Resource Recruitment and Selection	MAN 4320	3

A maximum of 3 credits used for the Leadership and Human Resource Development minor may count toward other Business major requirements. At least three of the courses above (9 credits) must be taken in residence at FAU. The acknowledgement of the minor is official upon successful completion of an FAU degree program.
