Dear Carol,

Seems like we're good to go with this. English has no objection.

Hm. Good question. It technically won't impact PTWC until the course exists so we could wait but it might also be good time to reopen those convos. If you do, I'd copy Bill Trapani, new Director of SIS, since PTWC falls under SIS.

I have no concerns about the class, and no reason to bring it before WC. This looks like a great class and might be a good opportunity to re-open the conversation of the PTWC with SMCS. Should I bring Julia in, or send an email connecting Carol to Julia?

I don't think we should have concerns since the writing content is very clearly in their wheelhouse. We may want to add it to PTWC tho. I would want Wendy to weigh in. But, given the WC has many non-writing peeps I am not sure they are good filtration system for this.

Dear Wendy and Barclay,

Carol is hoping to propose/run this new course. Do we have concerns? Should the writing committee consult about this?

Hi Carol,

Attached are the proposed syllabus and schedule for the new writing course. I've also attached two activities/assignment examples. As a note, in the schedule where it says "lecture content," that will be elaborated once the course is more formed through e-learning. However, the textbooks listed are the ones I would require. Also, I proofed it but there may be a few typos...

Please let me know if this is all you need.

Thanks,
Christina
