Program Name Bachelor of Public Safety Administration	<input type="checkbox"/> New Program <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Change Program	Effective Date <small>(TERM & YEAR)</small> Spring 2021
Please explain the requested change(s) and offer rationale below or on an attachment (Catalog changes are attached). The School of Public Administration offers a Minor in Disaster Management. One of the course options for the Minor in Disaster Management - "Designing Safer Communities with CPTED" (ARC 4384) is no longer being offered by the School of Architecture. The BPSA Committee and the Faculty of the School of Public Administration would like to replace that course with "Introduction to Volunteer Management (PAD 4148).

Disaster Management Minor

The Disaster Management minor, available to students from all undergraduate majors at FAU, expands knowledge and skills about the concepts, issues and technologies involved in preparing for and managing the aftermath of a major disaster. Educational outcomes for the minor will integrate material from the unique perspectives of the departments involved into skills such as communication, use of resources, visual planning technologies, cultural competence and preparedness as professionals and as individual, family and community members.

Students must complete 12 credits from the courses listed below. Of the 12 credits, at least 9 credits must be earned at FAU. All courses must be completed with a minimum grade of "C" or better.
