Preparedness	Students are responsible for course materials from Canvas or fellow classmates for days that they do not attend class. Students who arrive late are responsible for acquiring course materials for the time period they missed. Lectures will not be repeated in person, by phone or email on an individual basis for those who are late or absent under any circumstance. Students must arrive prepared for class with assignments. Students who do not participate in class or individual discussions with faculty during class should not expect private critiques with faculty. Students are required to attend courses meetings. Completion of all assignments by their designated due date is required. Arrange for delivery of your assignment if you are ill on the day an assignment is due.
Attendance	Students are expected to attend all of their scheduled University classes and to satisfy all academic objectives as outlined by the instructor. The effect of absences upon grades is determined by the instructor, and the University reserves the right to deal at any time with individual cases of non-attendance.

NO cellphone use in class. Please leave the room if you must text or make a call.

Attendance ( cont. )	Students are responsible for arranging to make up work missed because of legitimate class absence, such as illness, family emergencies, military obligation, court-imposed legal obligations or participation in University-approved activities. Examples of University-approved reasons for absences include participating on an athletic or scholastic team, musical and theatrical performances and debate activities. It is the student's responsibility to give the instructor notice prior to any anticipated absences and within a reasonable amount of time after an unanticipated absence, ordinarily by the next scheduled class meeting. Instructors must allow each student who is absent for a University-approved reason the opportunity to make up work missed without any reduction in the student's final course grade as a direct result of such absence. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>&gt; 1 absence is permitted in a mini semester.</li> <li>&gt; 3 late arrivals or early departures=1 absence.</li> <li>&gt; Arriving over 20 min. late or departing over 20 min. early will be marked as absent.</li> </ul> Emergencies will be dealt with on an individual basis. Incomplete grades will be granted at the discretion of the professor, and only in the case of a grave individual emergency.
Evaluation	This course is satisfactory/unsatisfactory. A satisfactory grade will be issued to students who attend at least 7 of 8 classes, complete all class exercises, and pass the exam with at least 70%.
Honor Code	Policy Statement: Students at Florida Atlantic University are expected to maintain the highest ethical standards. Academic dishonesty is considered a serious breach of these ethical standards, because it interferes with the university mission to provide a high quality education in which no student enjoys an unfair advantage over any other. Academic dishonesty is also destructive of the university community, which is grounded in a system of mutual trust and places high value on personal integrity and individual responsibility. Harsh penalties are associated with academic dishonesty. For more information, see University Regulation 4.001.
Disability	Policy Statement: In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), students who require special accommodation due to a disability to properly execute coursework must register with Student Accessibility Services (SAS) and follow all SAS procedures. SAS has offices across three of FAU's campuses – Boca Raton, Davie and Jupiter – however disability services are available for students on all campuses.
Support	Counseling And Psychological Services (CAPS) Center Life as a university student can be challenging physically, mentally and emotionally. Students who find stress negatively affecting their ability to achieve academic or personal goals may wish to consider utilizing FAU's Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) Center. CAPS provides FAU students a range of services—individual counseling, support meetings, and psychiatric services, to name a few—offered to help improve and maintain emotional well-being.
