

Correspondence and Comments by Departments Affected by New Course

April 2022: Correspondence sharing the course syllabus and description was sent to the following departments and individuals.

Hanqi Zhuang, Ph.D. - Electrical Engineering and Computer Science

Carol Bishop Mills, Ph.D. Communication & Multimedia Studies

Ann Branaman, Chair and Professor, Sociology

Joy Longo, College of Nursing

Emilio Zarruk, Finance Department

Of these departments, the School of Communication and Multimedia Studies responded back. The School was concerned that the course appeared to replicate DIG 2202 Digital Culture.

- April 2022: Dr. Dukes and Dr. Jillian Powers meet with the School of Communication and Multimedia Studies meet. No resolution to the issue was achieved.
- July 2022: Dr. Carol Mills and Dr. Victoria Brown meet. Dr. Mills shared the concerns the department had and specific areas that DIG 2202 and EME 2021 overlapped.
- Sept 2022: A revised syllabus was shared with the School of Communication and Multimedia Studies.
- Sept, 13, 2022: An email with the following was received from the School of Communication and Multimedia:

Rama,
I sent this message to you and I am almost positive you answered that there is no conflict. But, I have misplaced the your message. Will you send a 'no conflict' message again. Sorry for having to ask again.
