COURSE ASSESSMENTS, ASSIGNMENTS & GRADING POLICY

GRADING CRITERIA

The instructor will calculate your grade based on the following weighted distribution:

Assessment	Weight (%)
Mini dialogues (3)	12%
Talk Abroad (4)	20%
Final Oral Exam	6%
Compositions (3)	18%
Discussion Boards (5)	15%
Homework (Portales in vhlcentral.com)	20%
Final Cumulative Exam	9%
TOTAL	100%

Introductions and Syllabus Quiz

You will post an introduction in the Student Introductions discussion board and take a Syllabus Quiz. You can take the Syllabus Quiz as many times as necessary to achieve 100%.

Mini Dialogues (3 mini dialogues for a total of 12% for the semester)

You will be required to produce mini dialogues with a classmate using the basic structures of each lesson covered. You are encouraged to work with different classmates throughout the term. These dialogues average 10 minutes per conversation following specific prompts. Mini dialogues will be recorded on vhlcentral.com using the "Partner Chat" option. You can watch a video on how it works in the appropriate Canvas module. The material used covered in the lessons studied should be your own. No reading is allowed. It is encouraged to review the recording before submitting. You can re-record in order to correct mistakes and/or complete assigned time. All mini dialogues must be submitted by 11:59 p.m. EST on the day assigned in each module. No late work will be accepted.

It is strongly advisable to communicate with classmates immediately to schedule practice and recording sessions together. Any scheduling conflicts should be brought to your instructor's attention by 11:59 p.m. of the first Monday of the second week of class.

Talk Abroad (4 Talk Abroad sessions for a total of 20% for the semester)

Throughout the semester, students are required to have a total of 4 conversations with a native Spanish-speaker via a web-based service called Talk Abroad. Each conversation has a clear objective detailed in Canvas. In this conversation, you will share your information with your conversational partner, and you must obtain his/hers. The conversations are of 10-15 minutes each.

FLORIDA ATLANTIC UNIVERSITY

Please see your Canvas course site for specific objectives, rubrics used to evaluate your performance, and deadlines for each conversation. No late work will be accepted. Note that for each conversation you must also provide the following information to be posted on the specific discussion board for this activity:

1. Summarize the conversation by highlighting main ideas
2. Write a paragraph about something you have learned (e.g. grammar, vocabulary, cultural content, etc.) in this conversation

Note that you need to schedule these conversations at least 36 hours in advance. It is important to know that if you miss any of these conversations, Talk Abroad will not be able to issue credit for it.

Final Oral Exam (for a total of 6% for the semester)

This final oral assessment is carried out with a classmate following specific prompts. This dialogue averages a 10-minute conversation using the material learned in the course and the Spanish heritage information of the student. This live conversation is carried out with a classmate via Canvas Conferences. Your instructor will be present during this interaction. This assignment will be graded according to the rubric located on “Rubrics” content on Canvas. You are expected to use your own material. No reading is allowed. Assessment date is detailed in Canvas. No late work will be accepted and there is no make-up for this assignment.

Compositions (3 assignments for a total of 18% for the semester)

Following the directions described in Canvas, students will prepare their compositions and submit them through Turnitin. As with all other assignments in this course, the work you submit must be your own. Students should follow writing techniques practiced in the course, a logical presentation and development of ideas and good use of correction and editing.

The first two assignments will be reactions to short stories written by Hispanic authors which should reflect an understanding of the story and focus on one aspect that interested the student. The first written assignment is a minimum of 250 words and the second assignment is a minimum of 300 words. Each of these two compositions have a first version worth 70% and a rewriting process which counts for the remaining 30% for each composition grade. In the event you submit the first version after the due date, you do not have a chance to rewrite it and can only accrue up to 70% of the grade.

The third composition is an investigative work of the student’s Spanish Heritage in relation to a specific topic studied in class (e.g. health system, technology, housing, workforce, etc.). Sources should be used and properly cited. This final composition does not have the opportunity to be rewritten and should have a minimum of 350 words.

More information about the compositions and deadlines will be on Canvas. These assignments will be graded according to the rubric located on “Rubrics” content on Canvas. No late work will be accepted.

Discussion Boards (5 discussion boards for a total of 15% for the semester)

As part of the course assignments, you will be asked to post an original submission to the module discussion and reply to 2 other students’ posts with a substantive response. A substantive response adds value to the discussion by bringing new ideas, research, evidence, etc. to the conversation. “I agree,” “Ditto” and the like are not acceptable replies. Please note that original post and replies have different submission dates. For these deadlines refer to the course Blueprint. The number of words for each post is described in each module. Rules of Netiquette must be followed. Replies are not texts with your friends. Full sentences in Spanish, proper spelling and punctuation are expected.

Ensure that postings contain detailed responses to each question and that course and chapter contents are applied in your discussion responses. Make sure you have at least the minimum amount of words required for each assignment to avoid a negative impact on your grade. Do not plagiarize. This post will be graded according to the rubric located on “Rubrics” content on Canvas.

All original posts must be submitted by 11:59 pm EST on dates assigned in the Blueprint.

Original posts are worth 70 points and 2 points will be deducted for each day the post is late. Two responses to peers are due at 11:59 pm EST on the day assigned in the Blueprint. Each response is worth 15 points. Please use verb tenses and vocabulary presented in the lesson.

Homework via vhlcentral.com (20% for the semester)

Learning a language successfully requires consistent work and effort, therefore you are encouraged to have daily contact with VHL Central. This course relies heavily on materials available at vhlcentral.com. Step-by-step directions on how to create an account, register for this course and access the exercises within vhlcentral.com are detailed on the GET STARTED page under “Publisher material” on Canvas.

First, cover the material in your e-Companion (e-book) and then complete the assigned exercises before the due date. You are expected to complete assigned exercises, readings, videos, and other activities by 11:59 PM of each due date indicated. Do not wait until the last minute, as late work will not be accepted. Many activities are automatically scored for accuracy, thereby providing you with instant feedback and a score on your performance. Some activities will be reviewed by your instructor. There are also several exercises that are not assigned available for you to practice, which are not graded.

If you experience any technical issues, contact VHL Central Technical Support. If after you have contacted Technical Support, your issue still is not resolved, contact your instructor during office hours.

Final Cumulative Exam (for a total of 9% for the semester)

The Final Cumulative Exam will cover all the material seen in the course. It consists of a combination of multiple choice, fill-in-the-blank, matching, and sentences production. You will have a single attempt and a limited amount of time to complete the exam by the date indicated.

Please make sure to prepare before starting the exam. As with all other assignments in this course, the work you submit is to be your own. Academic dishonesty of any form is not tolerated. The exam will be taken online in the Canvas Learning Management System (LMS) and will be timed. No make-up exam is given. The exam cannot be retaken.

FLORIDA ATLANTIC UNIVERSITY

Final extra credit (Up to 3 points to be added on your final grade)

Throughout the course, students are encouraged to keep a Glossary of all the corrections made to their assignments with regards to vocabulary and/or idiomatic expressions that exemplify interference between English and Spanish. Students will obtain 1 point for 3 words/expressions and could get a maximum of 3 points = 9 expressions. No late work will be accepted. Students should provide the following information in the Discussion Board assigned for this activity before the deadline posted in Canvas:

1. Identify problematic word/expression and explain why it is incorrect
2. Provide the correct equivalent
3. Give an example on how to use the correct expression

GRADE SCALE

Grade	Total (%)

C	76 – 73
C-	72 – 70
D+	69 – 68

LATE ASSIGNMENTS POLICY

As the blueprint states deadlines in advance, no late work will be accepted. It is the student's responsibility to review the blueprint on the first day of class and see if conflicts with other classes and/or work arise. If this is the case, students must make reasonable accommodations to submit the assignment(s) in advance and communicate with their course instructor 3 weeks before the deadline.

Discussion boards remain open past the date of original post submissions to allow students responses. Students could submit their original post after the date assigned in the Blueprint until the day the discussion board closes, but 2 points will be deducted for each day the post is late.

FLORIDA ATLANTIC UNIVERSITY

MAKE-UP POLICY

Make-up is available for students participating in University-approved activities (e.g. athletic or scholastics teams, musical and theatrical performances, and debate activities), military obligation or court-imposed legal obligations. Students have up to one week from the deadline missed in order to make-up an assignment. Please contact the course instructor and provide him/her with the appropriate documentation of the aforementioned events. Students will not be able to make up an assignment after the one-week deadline has passed regardless of the documentation provided.

In the event of a documented medical emergency, students have up to one week from the deadline missed in order to make-up an assignment. Please contact the course instructor and provide him/her with the appropriate documentation. Students will not be able to make up an assignment after the one-week deadline has passed regardless of the documentation provided.

There is no make-up policy for the final assignments (Final Oral Exam, Final Written exam, Composition 3).

INCOMPLETE GRADE POLICY

University policy states that a student who is passing a course but has not completed all work due to exceptional circumstances, may, with consent of the instructor, temporarily receive a grade of incomplete (“I”). The assignment of the “I” grade is at the discretion of the instructor but is allowed only if the student is passing the course. The grade of “I” is reserved uniquely for situations where a student has not completed some portion (20% or less) of the work assigned to all students as a regular part of the course.

COURSE POLICIES

CODE OF ACADEMIC INTEGRITY POLICY STATEMENT

Students at Florida Atlantic University should endeavor to maintain the highest ethical standards. Academic dishonesty is a serious breach of these ethical standards, because it interferes with the University mission to provide a high-quality education in which no student enjoys an unfair advantage over any other. Academic dishonesty is also destructive to the university community, which is grounded in a system of mutual trust and places high value on personal integrity and individual responsibility. Harsh penalties are associated with academic dishonesty. For more information, see University Regulation 4.001.

For the purpose of this course, the use of online translators constitutes academic dishonesty.

PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism is unacceptable in the University community. Academic work must be an original work of your own thought, research, or self-expression. When students borrow ideas, wording, or organization from another source, they must acknowledge that fact in an appropriate manner. Plagiarism is the deliberate use and appropriation of another's work without identifying the source and trying to pass off such work as one's own. Any student who fails to give full credit for ideas or materials taken from another has plagiarized. This includes all discussion board posts, journal entries, wikis, and other written and oral presentation assignments. If in doubt, cite your source.
